THE BOB DEVANEY SPORTS CENTER

The Nebraska volleyball program enters its second season at the Bob Devaney Sports Center in 2014. The Huskers' first season in the renovated facility was a tremendous success, as Nebraska averaged an NCAA-record 8,175 fans per match in 2013. Despite nearly doubling the capacity from the NU Coliseum, the Huskers sold out every match at the Devaney Center last season. NU has sold out 201 consecutive home matches entering this season. The Huskers' sellout streak dates back to 2001 and is the longest streak in the history of NCAA women's athletics.

MEDIA INFORMATION/POLICIES

The 2014 Nebraska Volleyball Media Guide is designed to assist the media in its coverage of Husker volleyball. Additional information, including releases, photographs and videotapes may be obtained by contacting the Nebraska Media Relations Office at (402) 472-2263.

Media Credentials

All requests for press, broadcast, photo and parking credentials for Nebraska volleyball home matches should be directed to the Nebraska Media Relations Office, One Memorial Stadium, P.O. Box 880123, Lincoln, NE 68588-0123. Requests must be made in writing on appropriate letterhead at least one week before the match. Requests via fax and e-mail are acceptable (see fax information below).

As a general rule, working space is allocated on the following basis: (1) daily newspaper and wire-service writers covering for next-day publication; (2) radio and television personnel for broadcast origination; (3) sports editors of Nebraska daily newspapers; (4) official school student daily newspaper, one seat only; (5) approved special coverage; (6) press and TV working photographers.

Media Will Call

Media passes that are not mailed may be picked up with identification at the media entrance outside the south entrance at the court level, beginning 90 minutes prior to the start of the match.

Media Parking

Media outlets will be issued parking credentials for Lot 52 at the Devaney Center. To request a parking pass, please call the Nebraska Media Relations Office at (402) 472-2263.

Nebraska Devaney Center Directions

- From Lincoln's Municipal Airport: Exit the airport on W. Adams Street, the main road leading out to Cornhusker Highway. Follow W. Adams Street to the first stoplight and turn right on Cornhusker Highway. Follow Cornhusker Highway and take a right on 14th Street. Proceed on 14th Street and take a left on West Entrance Road to enter the state fairgrounds and Devaney Center.
- From Omaha's Eppley Airport: Exit the airport to the stoplight and turn right onto Abbott Drive. Go approximately one mile to Storz Expressway (Abbott Drive turns into Storz Expressway). Proceed approximately three miles to I-480 South. Follow the signs onto I-80 West to Lincoln. Follow I-80 for approximately 60 miles and take the 27th Street Exit. Follow 27th Street south to Cornhusker Highway and turn right. Follow Cornhusker Highway and take a right onto 14th Street. Proceed on 14th Street and take a left on West Entrance Road.

Player Interviews

All media requests for interviews with Nebraska volleyball players should be directed to the Nebraska Media Relations Office (402-472-2263), preferably 24 hours in advance. The best time for in-season interviews is after practice. Nebraska is tentatively scheduled to practice from 3 to 5:45 p.m. during the season. With advance notice, interviews can be arranged for other hours, depending on student-athlete class schedules.

Coach Cook Interviews

The best time to reach Coach John Cook for an interview is weekdays after practice. Interviews with Coach Cook should be scheduled through the Media Relations Office by calling (402) 472-7781. During the season, Cook will also have weekly press conferences preceding Coach Bo Pelini's football press conferences on Mondays on the sixth floor of the Don Bryant Media Facility at Memorial Stadium.

Postgame Interviews

Nebraska's locker room is closed to the media at home and on the road. For home games, Nebraska's postgame news conference will be held following a brief cooling off period in the designated postgame interview room off the southeast corner of the Devaney Center court. The opposing team is housed in the visitor's locker room, located off the hallway at the northwest corner of the playing floor and will be available following the cooling off period. Make requests for opposing players and coaches through the visiting SID.

On the road, Cook will be available to the media immediately following his postgame radio show. Husker players will be available to the media at that time.

Press Row Location

Press row for Nebraska volleyball games is located in section C-10. Television crews broadcasting live may shoot from either end on the court. Prior to matches, game notes and roster sheets will be available for working media in the media work room located across the hall from the press conference room. Media can use the room prior to, during and after the game to write and send stories. Phone and free wireless internet will be available in the media work room, along with limited ethernet lines.

Photo Areas

For photographers, courtside areas have been set aside along the end line on the North and South side of the Devaney Center, next to the Nebraska Courtside Club. Additional still photographer areas are located throughout the Devaney Center. Contact the Media Relations Office at (402) 472-2263 or Athletic Department Photographer Scott Bruhn at (402) 472-3290 for specific locations.

Media Services

Pregame notes, programs and media guides will be provided before each match. Play-by-play sheets and final statistics will be distributed. Starting approximately 60 minutes before first serve, refreshments will be served in the media work room, which will be located across the hall from the press conference room.

Radio/Television Broadcast Space

Requests for live radio and television broadcast space and credentials should be made to Nebraska Media Relations, One Memorial Stadium, P.O. Box 880123, University of Nebraska, Lincoln, NE, 68588-0123, telephone (402) 472-2263. If statisticians are needed, please contact Media Relations at least one week in advance.

Broadcast Rights

The University of Nebraska-Lincoln and Husker Sports Network own exclusive radio broadcast rights to all of the University of Nebraska volleyball matches. Other than the Husker Sports Network and the University of Nebraska student station (KRNU), the only stations or networks that will be allowed to broadcast Nebraska matches from the NU Coliseum are those that have rights to broadcast games played by the opposing team. All radio stations and networks broadcasting from the NU Coliseum must have permission from the University of Nebraska and are subject to a rights fee. Any representative of a radio station or network that has not purchased such rights shall not air live match action or description of any match while it is in progress. Only stations that have purchased broadcast rights may install telephones on press row, or use telephones on press row for reporting on matches. By accepting media credentials, representatives of stations and networks that have not purchased broadcast rights signify their agreement to the above stipulations.

Internet Access

High-speed wireless Internet access is available on press row for Nebraska volleyball matches. For more information on how to access the secure network, contact the Nebraska Media Relations Office at (402) 472-2263.

MEDIA INFORMATION

Head Coach John Cook meets the media with the media prior to the 2013 NCAA Lincoln Regional.

Broadcast Telephone Lines

Visiting radio stations are welcome to have their own telephone lines installed on press row and may do so by contacting UNL Telecommunications at (402) 472-2000. However, the Husker Sports Network installs telephone lines for visiting official broadcasts and charges a fee for the use of those lines for non-conference games. Stations interested in using the lines should contact Mike Elliott of the Husker Sports Network at (402) 430-7312.

Media Relations Office

The Media Relations Office is located on the third floor of the Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex in the North end of Memorial Stadium. To reach the Media Relations Office, please enter at the main entrance on the North end of Memorial Stadium.

Fax and E-mail Access

The Nebraska Media Relations Office has an automatic facsimile machine that can transmit or receive documents. The phone number for the fax is (402) 472-2005. Match recaps will be e-mailed to media outlets following every match. Contact the Nebraska Media Relations Office at (402) 472-2263 to have your name added to the post-match e-mail list.

For the most up-to-the minute coverage of Nebraska women's volleyball on the Internet, visit Huskers.com, the official website of the University of Nebraska Athletic Department.

In addition to updated results, statistics and game stories, you can find photos, player and coach biographies, schedule and roster information and weekly releases on the Husker volleyball program.

Husker fans have the opportunity to gain even greater access to the NU volleyball program through HuskersNSide, the premium site of the Nebraska Athletic Department. HuskersNSide provides live video streaming of select NU athletic events and daily video content to its subscribers not available anywhere else. In 2014, HuskersNSide will stream the N-side Nebraska Show as well as Coach Cook's weekly press conferences. Fans can also view select matches on BTN.com and BTN2GO.

To join, visit Huskers.com and click on HuskersNSide. Because this is high-quality video streaming, subscribers to the site must have broadband Internet access.

Nebraska Volleyball on the Husker Sports Network

The Husker Sports Network will continue the strong tradition of broadcasting excellence in 2014, as it brings Husker volleyball to fans across Nebraska. Every volleyball match this season is available to a network of 28 radio stations that reaches every corner of the state. KBBK (107.3 FM) in Lincoln and KFFF (93.3 FM) in Omaha will serve as the flagship stations for volleyball.

The Husker Sports Network, in its 20th year of producing and marketing the live broadcasts of University of Nebraska Athletics, extended and expanded its agreement with the University on June 13, 2008. Under the agreement, IMG College's Husker Sports Network will manage and market all rights associated with radio programming, coaches' TV and radio shows, program sales, sponsorship inventory and publication printing rights.

IMG College is the leading collegiate multimedia, marketing and licensing/brand management company in America representing more than 200 of the nation's top collegiate properties including the NCAA and its 89 championships, NCAA Football, leading conferences, and many of the most prestigious colleges and universities in the country. Headquartered in Winston Salem, N.C., IMG College employs 700 people in nearly 100 offices throughout the United States. IMG College is the leader in capturing consumer devotion to college sports through partnership opportunities in multimedia rights, licensing, events and hospitality, marketing, stadium and arena development, stadium seating solutions, ticketing, sales, and consulting. IMG College produces nearly 30,000 hours of radio programming on the largest sports network in the country, manages nearly 5,000 hours of local television programming, is the leading publisher of college sports publications, and is the largest manager of university athletic websites. IMG College is a division of IMG Worldwide, a global sports, fashion and media business. For more information, visit imgworld.com.

John Baylor enters his 21st year as the voice of the Nebraska volleyball program and brings his high-energy broadcasts throughout the state. He has covered all three of the Huskers' national title seasons. He is joined by color analysts Lindsay Peterson and Diane Mendenhall.

In addition to broadcasting Husker matches, the Husker Sports Network also produces Sports Nightly, a daily, live call-in show focusing on NU athletics and other area sports. The show runs from 6 to 9 p.m. (central) across the state. During the season, Coach Cook will join John Baylor for an hour call-in show on Husker volleyball. The show will typically be on Tuesday from 7 to 8 p.m. (central) once Big Ten action begins.

THE HOME OF NEBRASKA VOLLEYBALL

The Nebraska volleyball program begins its second season calling the Bob Devaney Sports Center home in 2014. In its inaugural season in the redesigned arena, the Huskers posted a 16-3 record. NU sold out every match in 2013 - stretching its sellout streak to 200 consecutive matches - while leading the nation with an average attendance of 8,175 fans per match, an NCAA record.

The Nebraska volleyball program opened a new era in its storied tradition in 2013 by moving into a new permanent home court for the first time in almost 40 years. When Nebraska played its preseason Red-White Match on Saturday, Aug. 24, 2013, the Bob Devaney Sports Center became the official home of Husker volleyball. The Devaney Center, which received $20 million in renovations designed to create the nation's premier home court advantage for volleyball, allowed nearly 4,000 more Nebraska fans per match to watch their beloved Huskers.

Despite nearly doubling the capacity from the historic NU Coliseum, Nebraska carried over its sellout streak to its new home. The Huskers enter the 2014 season having sold out 200 consecutive matches, the longest home sellout streak in the history of any NCAA women's sport. The fan support will continue this fall, as NU sold out of season tickets. Not only did the Huskers quickly sell out the 7,907-seat capacity, they also have room for nearly 400 standing-room seats at each match and a season-ticket waiting list of well over 1,000.

During the last two decades, Nebraska has ranked among the nation's top three volleyball programs in average home attendance every season. The move to the Devaney Center allowed Nebraska to dethrone perennial attendance champion Hawaii. The Huskers averaged 8,175 fans per match in their first year in the Devaney Center, becoming the nation's attendance leader for the first time in more than two decades.

Although the old configuration of the Devaney Center served as the full-time home for Nebraska men's and women's basketball from its opening in 1976 until the completion of the 2012-13 season, Husker volleyball enters its second full-time season at the renovated Devaney Center with a long history of success in the arena named after Nebraska's Hall of Fame Coach and Athletic Director.

The Huskers have regularly played at least one match per season in the Devaney Center over the last 22 years, including the entire 1991 home volleyball schedule while the NU Coliseum was being renovated. Overall, Nebraska carries a 39-6 record (.867 winning percentage) at the Devaney Center, including a 16-3 mark in 2013. Those wins have generally come in front of some of the largest regular-season crowds in the history of college volleyball.

The Huskers played eight matches in front of 10,000 or more fans in the previous seating configuration at the Devaney Center, including the three largest regular-season crowds in NCAA history. In 2009, with a basketball seating capacity of 13,595, the Devaney Center set an NCAA regular-season attendance mark of 13,870 for a match against UCLA. That attendance topped the previous NCAA regular-season mark of 13,412, which was set at the Devaney Center on Sept. 12, 2008, when the Huskers defeated LSU. On Oct. 21, 2007, the Devaney Center held 13,396 for a match against Hawaii.

The renovations to the Devaney Center have done much more than change the capacity. Massive red ceiling trusses helped create a similar environment in the arena to the Huskers' former home in the Coliseum. A great wall, which replicates the old Coliseum entry, adds to an atmosphere steeped in tradition. While the new Devaney Center pays homage to the history of the Coliseum, which served as the home to Husker NCAA Championship teams in 1995, 2000 and 2006, the innovative design and technological advances inside also symbolize the visionary contributions of AVCA All-Time Great Coaches Terry Pettit and John Cook.

Nebraska volleyball players have long been encouraged to "Dream Big" and the Devaney Center project made that dream a reality. The $20 million renovation covers 102,548 square feet. It included greatly expanded premium seating options, while also providing drastically increased seating for both Nebraska students and physically challenged fans. The project also included new 10MM video boards, along with updated concession areas and renovated restrooms.

The finishing touches on the renovation were finished this summer, including a new, grand fan entrance at street-level on the south side of the arena. With renovations now complete, the Devaney Center offers a perfect blend of tradition and technology designed to benefit the nation's best volleyball fans. The Devaney Center also provides the top young volleyball players in the world the best training and competitive environment for continuing to pursue Big Ten and NCAA championships at Nebraska.

*NCAA Record

Nebraska set an NCAA regular-season attendance record as 13,870 fans witnessed the Huskers' match with UCLA at the 2009 Ameritas Players Challenge at the Devaney Center.

Nebraska sold out its final 181 matches over its last 12 seasons at the historic NU Coliseum, which served as the home for Husker volleyball from 1975 to 2012.

DEVANEY CENTER FAN INFORMATION

Fan Information

Entrances to the Devaney Center are located on the North and South sides of the building. The North entrance features court-level and concourse-level entrances, while the south entrance is only on court level. Both entrances are handicapped accessible. The player pass gate entrance is located on the north concourse at the far right door. Gates to the Devaney Center will open 90 minutes prior to the start of the match during the regular season. In matches where Nebraska is not playing, door will open 60 minutes prior to the start of the match.

First Aid

The Red Cross provides emergency medical services and the first aid station is located on the southwest corner of the concourse level.

Lost and Found

If you have lost anything - or found a lost item - please report/return it to the nearest fan host or police officer. All lost and found items will be kept until the end of the season. Items may be claimed by contacting the Athletic Events Office at (402) 472-1000.

Meeting Places

In case you become separated from your family or friends, please plan ahead to have two designated meeting places - one inside the Devaney Center (such as the concession stands) and another outside the Devaney Center. If you need assistance, contact the nearest fan host or police officer.

Restrooms

Restrooms are located on the north and south sides of the court level and on the east and west ends of the concourse level. A handicap-only family restroom is located in the southeast corner of court level. An elevator is also located in the southeast corner of the building.

THE BIG TEN CONFERENCE

Known as one of intercollegiate sports' most successful undertakings, the Big Ten is home to a lineage of legendary names and an ongoing tradition of developing strong leaders. Even in its infancy, the conference established itself as the preeminent collection of institutions in the nation, where the pursuit of academic excellence prevailed as the definitive goal.

The history of the Big Ten traces back nearly 120 years to the Palmer House hotel in Chicago, where on January 11, 1895, then-Purdue president James H. Smart and leaders from the University of Chicago, University of Illinois, University of Michigan, University of Minnesota, Northwestern University and University of Wisconsin set out to organize and develop principles for the regulation of intercollegiate athletics.

At that meeting, a blueprint for the administration of college athletics under the direction of appointed faculty representatives was outlined. The presidents' first known action "restricted eligibility for athletics to bonafide, full-time students who were not delinquent in their studies." That important legislation, along with other legislation that would follow in the coming years, served as the primary building block for amateur intercollegiate athletics.

On February 8, 1896, one faculty member from each of those seven universities met at the same Palmer House and officially established the mechanics of the conference, which was officially incorporated as the "Intercollegiate Conference Athletic Association" in 1905.

Indiana University and the State University of Iowa became the eighth and ninth members in 1899. In 1908, Michigan briefly withdrew its membership, and in 1912 Ohio State University joined the conference, bringing its membership total back to nine. Upon Michigan's return in 1917, the conference was first referred to as the "Big Ten" by media members, and that name was eventually incorporated in 1987.

As the 1900s opened, faculty representatives established rules for intercollegiate athletics that were novel for the time. As early as 1904, the faculty approved legislation that required eligible athletes to meet entrance requirements and to have completed a full year's work, along with having one year of residence.

In 1901, the first Big Ten Championship event was staged when the outdoor track and field championships were held at the University of Chicago. The debut event marked what is now a staple of conference competition. Today, the Big Ten sponsors 28 sports, 14 for men and 14 for women, including the debut of men's and women's lacrosse this academic year, furthering the conference's commitment to broad-based programming and providing opportunities to more student-athletes than any conference in the country.

One of the conference's proudest traditions began in 1902 when Michigan took on Stanford in the Rose Bowl, the nation's first bowl game. Big Ten teams only appeared in Pasadena twice before the conference signed an exclusive contract with the Tournament of Roses in 1946, making it the first bowl game with permanent conference affiliations. But Michigan's appearance in 1902 cultivated a relationship that has endured for more than a century. In January 2014, Michigan State defeated Stanford in the 100th Rose Bowl Game.

Coupling the academic goals set forth by the leaders of the charter members of the conference and their steadfast commitment to athletics, the conference instituted the Big Ten Medal of Honor in 1915. It is awarded annually by each conference institution to a student of the graduating class who has attained the greatest proficiency in scholarship and athletics. It is the most prestigious honor a conference student-athlete can receive and in 2014, the conference celebrated its 100th anniversary.

In 1922, Major John L. Griffith became the conference's first "Commissioner of Athletics." Griffith was the first of five men to assume the role of commissioner in the conference's history, followed by Kenneth L. "Tug" Wilson in 1945, Bill Reed in 1961, Wayne Duke in 1971 and current commissioner James E. Delany in 1989.

After nearly 30 years as a 10-member conference, the conference consolidated to a nine-school league when the University of Chicago formally withdrew its membership in 1946. Michigan State College (now Michigan State University) was added to the Big Ten three years later, bringing the number of affiliated conference schools to 10 once again.

In 1955, the Big Ten formulated a revenue-sharing model designed to pool all football television rights of its members and share those proceeds equally. The conference and its members continue to utilize a revenue-sharing model, dividing media rights, bowl payouts and other profits among all conference institutions.

In one of Duke's first actions as commissioner, he oversaw the adoption of the Big Ten Advisory Commission in 1972, designed to study conference programs and make suggestions which would further Big Ten objectives. The Advisory Commission enlists former student-athletes to serve as liaisons to the NCAA's Diversity and Inclusion Department, the Big Ten Student-Athlete Advisory Commission and other organizations.

In 1981, the conference endorsed a proposal that enabled universities to affiliate their women's intercollegiate programs with the conference, and the first conference championships for women were staged that fall. The Big Ten was the first conference to voluntarily adopt male and female participation goals after launching its Gender Equity Action Plan in 1992.

James E. Delany
Commissioner

In December of 1989, the conference agreed in principle to invite Pennsylvania State University for membership. On June 4, 1990, the Council of Presidents officially voted to integrate Penn State into the conference, giving the Big Ten 11 members.

In 2004, the Big Ten implemented a pilot program of instant replay for college football. Following the season, the conference forwarded replay proposals to the NCAA regarding the future use of instant replay, where it approved country-wide testing in 2005. In 2006, the NCAA approved the use of instant replay for all conferences.

In 2006, Commissioner Delany announced the creation of the first conference-owned television network, a 20-year agreement with Fox Cable Networks to create what would become the Big Ten Network (BTN). BTN launched on August 30, 2007, and will be in 60 million homes by the start of the 2014 football season. BTN is carried by all major cable, satellite and telco providers, as well as more than 300 cable operators across the United States and Canada. BTN2Go is the network's 24/7 simulcast available on smartphones, tablets and the internet that also allows international fans to access BTN.

On June 11, 2010, the Big Ten Council of Presidents/Chancellors (COP/C) approved a formal membership application by the University of Nebraska, expanding the conference to 12 institutions. Nebraska officially joined the Big Ten Conference on July 1, 2011.

The conference expanded its footprint further in 2012 when the COP/C approved formal membership applications from the University of Maryland and Rutgers University on November 19 and 20, respectively. Maryland and Rutgers became official Big Ten members on July 1, 2014, giving the conference almost 9,500 student-athletes and more than 11,000 participation opportunities on 350 teams in 42 different sports.

On June 3, 2013, the Big Ten announced that Johns Hopkins University had been accepted as the conference's first sport affiliate member. Johns Hopkins' addition in men's lacrosse gives the Big Ten six institutions sponsoring the sport, allowing the debut of men's lacrosse as an official conference sport and building on the Big Ten's tradition of broad-based sports competition.

In the fall of 2013, the Big Ten opened a new conference headquarters and meeting center in Rosemont, Ill. The newly constructed building is located 10 minutes from O'Hare Airport and has been designed to fully service the needs of nearly 200 meetings annually for Big Ten and Committee on Institutional Cooperation (CIC) related committees and coaches groups. The new headquarters also features an interactive digital museum - the Big Ten Experience - which opened to the public on June 7, 2014, and brings the conference's storied academic and athletic history to life. For more information, on the Big Ten Experience, go to bigten.org.

In June 2014, the Big Ten opened a second office in New York City, featuring both office and meeting space in Midtown Manhattan. Three Big Ten staff members are based in the New York City office to provide expanded coverage and service, while other conference and institutional administrators will utilize the space as necessary when conducting business on the East Coast. The Big Ten and its member institutions also have access to satellite office space in Washington, D.C.

Delany and his staff work to meet the educational needs of student-athletes to allow them to excel in both academics and athletics. The conference office manages 28 different championships and tournaments, offers legislative and compliance services, oversees the production and distribution of more than 1,200 events annually, provides staff services to coaching and administrative personnel and services media and fans interest for information on the Big Ten Conference.

Nearly 120 years after its inception, the Big Ten remains a national leader in intercollegiate athletics on and off the field. Big Ten programs have combined to win more than 300 team and nearly 1,700 individual NCAA Championships, consistently taking home individual honors for athletic and academic accomplishments and fulfilling the Big Ten's mission of academic achievement and athletic success.

HUSKER VOLLEYBALL NOTEBOOK

Nebraska Ranks Second All-Time in Wins

The Nebraska volleyball program begins the 2014 season as the second-winningest program in NCAA Division I history. Nebraska has 1,193 wins, trailing only UCLA (1,196). The Huskers and Bruins will battle it out in 2014 to become the first volleyball program to record 1,200 wins, while Penn State could also reach that mark this fall.

NU Boasts NCAA-Record Sellout Streak

The Husker volleyball program hit another unprecedented milestone in 2014, when the Huskers posted their 200th consecutive sellout in the NCAA Regional Final against Texas at the Bob Devaney Sports Center. The Huskers sold out all 19 of their home matches in 2013 in the first season at the Devaney Center, which featured a capacity nearly double that of the NU Coliseum, Nebraska's home venue from 1975 to 2012.

The increased capacity was no issue for Nebraska, as the Huskers sold out of their season-ticket packages, sold single-game standing-room-only tickets and have a season-ticket waiting list of more than 1,000. Nebraska not only continued the longest sellout streak in the history of NCAA women's athletics, but the Huskers led the nation in attendance for the first time in 20 years in 2013. Nebraska averaged 8,175 fans per game in its inaugural season at the Devaney Center. According to NCAA records, the Huskers became the first volleyball team to average 8,000 fans per match for an entire season. NU and Hawaii (7,591) were the only two schools nationally to average at least 4,000 fans per match in 2013.

Home volleyball matches have been sold out since Sept. 26, 2001, when Nebraska began its streak of 181 consecutive sellouts to close its stay at the NU Coliseum.

Huskers Home to NCAA-Record Crowds

In addition to the sellout streak, the Huskers have played in front of the largest regular-season and postseason crowds in NCAA history. Nebraska drew a sellout crowd of 13,870 to the Bob Devaney Sports Center for its match against UCLA on Sept. 13, 2009, when the Devaney Center featured seating configured for basketball. An overall NCAA-record crowd of 17,430 fans came out to watch Nebraska hand Penn State its only two set losses of the season in the 2006 NCAA Semifinal at the CenturyLink Center in Omaha.

Large single-match crowds are not an exception at Nebraska, but they are the norm. In fact, all 10 of the largest regular-season crowds in the sport's history have involved the Huskers.

Note: The North Carolina-Maryland volleyball match on Oct. 25, 2013, drew 15,945 fans as part of the men's basketball team's "Late Night With Roy" promotion, but it is not included on the list since it was not a volleyball-only event.

Nebraska is National Leader in All-Americans

Nebraska continued its string of All-America success in 2013, as Kelsey Robinson earned first-team recognition, Kadie Rolfzen garnered third-team accolades as a freshman and Meghan Haggerty and Mary Pollmiller were both honorable-mention selections. Robinson and Rolfzen increased Nebraska's NCAA-leading total to 38 All-Americans who have combined for 76 All-America certificates. Nebraska has had at least one All-American every season since 1983, a total of 33 straight seasons, including 41 All-America awards in Cook's 14 years at Nebraska.

Huskers the Most Decorated Team in AVCA Poll History

Nebraska has been a fixture in the AVCA coaches poll for more than three decades. In fact, the statistics show that NU has been the top-rated team in the history of the poll, as Nebraska ranks first nationally in most all-time appearances in the poll, most weeks ranked No. 1 and most weeks ranked in the top 10.

The Huskers, who finished seventh in the final 2013 AVCA poll, have been ranked in all 462 polls since its inception in 1982. Nebraska has spent 418 weeks in the top 10 and were ranked in the top 10 for 115 consecutive weeks from Aug. 30, 2004 to Sept. 5, 2011. The Huskers head all programs at the top of the all-time polls, spending 85 weeks all-time at No. 1, including a 26-poll stretch over the 2006 and 2007 seasons. NU has spent 66 weeks at No. 1 since the start of the 2000 season.

JOHN COOK

Head Coach • 15th Season • University of San Diego (1979)

The philosophy of John Cook can be summarized in two simple words.

Dream Big.

When Cook took over the reins of the Nebraska volleyball program, the challenge facing him was daunting. Cook replaced one of the sport's legendary coaches in Terry Pettit, who won 694 matches and guided the Huskers to 18 consecutive NCAA appearances and six national semifinals.

Cook, who left an emerging power in Wisconsin to guide the tradition-rich Husker program, had his own vision for Nebraska volleyball. He saw a program that had even more potential to grow.

His goals included consistently selling out home matches at the NU Coliseum, expanding the media exposure for his program and most importantly, continuing the tradition of athletic and academic excellence started by Pettit nearly a quarter of a century earlier. His vision catapulted the program to a new phase in 2013 as the Devaney Center underwent a $20 million renovation and became the new home for Nebraska volleyball. Moving to the Devaney Center increased the capacity crowd for Nebraska volleyball matches from 4,125 at the Coliseum to nearly 8,000 in addition to 400 standing-room-only tickets. In addition, five suites that give a private and expansive view of the action were built on the south side of the building and student seating was drastically increased.

Cook's vision is for the Huskers to remain at the forefront of college volleyball to enhance the sport at both the local and national levels. Nebraska enters 2014 with an NCAA-record 200 consecutive sellouts at the NU Coliseum - the longest sellout streak in NCAA women's athletics.

Cook saw the long-range potential of building the audience across the state. He also believed Nebraska could shine by hosting the sport's championship in the largest setting college volleyball had ever seen.

When others saw risks, Cook saw opportunities.

In 2006, Cook's dream was realized, as the Husker Nation had an opportunity to see Nebraska raise the bar in college volleyball. From record-setting, sold-out crowds at the CenturyLink Center Omaha, to a team that maximized its potential in winning the school's third national title, the Huskers enjoyed a remarkable season.

The Huskers entered the 2006 campaign with many questions, as they were forced to replace three All-Americans, including AVCA National Player-of-the-Year Christina Houghtelling. With four first-year starters on the court, including freshmen at setter and middle blocker, and sky-high expectations with the NCAA Championships in Omaha for the first time, 2006 shaped up to be Cook's toughest coaching job to date.

Nebraska took on all challenges head-on, going 33-1 and becoming only the third team in NCAA history to be ranked No. 1 the entire season. The Huskers went on the road and overcame a 2-0 deficit to defeat Minnesota to reach the national semifinals, marking the first time that Nebraska had won a regional outside the state. That victory set the stage for a watershed moment in college volleyball. Behind sellout crowds of over 17,000, the Huskers captured the school's third national title with victories over No. 4 UCLA and No. 2 Stanford. Four players earned AVCA All-America honors, including Sarah Pavan, who became NU's first Honda-Broderick Cup winner.

Two years later, the NCAA Championships returned to Omaha with another Husker team taking center stage.

An all-time NCAA attendance record of 17,430 traveled through a winter storm to witness one of the greatest matches in Nebraska's illustrious history. After dropping the first two sets to No. 1 Penn State, Nebraska fought back, winning the next two sets to hand the Nittany Lions their only set losses of the 2008 season. Although the Huskers were unable to complete the comeback, the performance symbolized a never-say-quit attitude that fueled the team's success. Despite losing a pair of performers to season-ending injuries, the Huskers went 31-3 and won their fifth consecutive conference title. At the Seattle Regional, the Huskers overcame a 2-0 deficit to send the match to a fifth set and trailed 9-3 in the fifth set before regrouping and earning the school's 11th trip to the NCAA semifinals. Jordan Larson, Tara Mueller and Sydney Anderson all earned All-America honors, while Larson was named Big 12 Player of the Year and Defensive Player of the Year, becoming the first player in conference history to sweep both honors.

Consistent excellence has been a hallmark of Cook's Nebraska squads. Since taking over the program in 2000, Cook has guided the Huskers to a pair of national titles, five NCAA semifinal appearances, nine Big 12 titles and one Big Ten championship. His teams have compiled a 413-48 record, owning the nation's top winning percentage (.896) during his tenure. Cook has also excelled against ranked teams, compiling a 126-31 record, including a 24-12 mark against top-five squads.

With Cook at the helm, Nebraska has produced numerous individual honors, including four U.S. National Team members, a Honda-Broderick Cup winner, three AVCA Division I National Players of the Year, two NCAA Top Ten Award winners, 41 AVCA All-Americans, three CoSIDA Academic All-Americans of the Year, 18 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans, one Big Ten Player of the Year, six Big 12 Players of the Year and three Big 12 Co-Players of the Year. Husker student-athletes have also combined for 40 first-team All-Big 12 awards and 61 academic All-Big 12 certificates. The Huskers have also earned 13 All-Big Ten honors, and 18 academic All-Big Ten accolades.

Cook's accomplishments haven't gone unnoticed, as he is a two-time AVCA National Coach of the Year, earning the prestigious honor in 2000 and 2005, and a four-time Big 12 Coach of the Year. He is one of only four active coaches - and one of six all-time - to be a two-time AVCA National Coach of the Year and was honored in 2008 by USA Volleyball, receiving its All-Time Great Coach Award.

In the Huskers' first year in the Bob Devaney Sports Center in 2013, Nebraska notched a 26-7 record and second-place finish in the Big Ten Conference. NU advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight as Kelsey Robinson was selected as a first-team All-American, Kadie Rolfzen earned third-team accolades and Mary Pollmiller and Meghan Haggerty were chosen as honorable-mention selections. Cook coached Robinson to one of the most successful seasons in Husker history, as she was selected as Nebraska's first Big Ten Player of the Year. Along with Robinson, Rolfzen and Pollmiller were also honored as All-Big Ten selections. The team recorded its 32nd straight trip to the NCAA Tournament and in doing so, improved its all-time record to 89-29. The Huskers have enjoyed unprecedented success over the last nine seasons, making three appearances in the NCAA semifinals. NU has also reached the Elite Eight in eight of the last 10 seasons.

The Huskers posted a 26-7 record in 2012, a historic season that marked the final year at the NU Coliseum. The team advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight as Lauren Cook was named a first-team AVCA All-American, Gina Mancuso and Hannah Werth earned second-team honors and Meghan Haggerty was an honorable-mention pick. Cook guided the Huskers to a 10-5 record against ranked teams and topped two No. 1 teams during the course of the season. The Huskers also posted four All-Big Ten picks and seven academic All-Big Ten accolades in 2012.

During the 2011 season the Huskers made history with their first Big Ten Conference title, as they won their 32nd overall conference crown. Nebraska notched a 25-5 record on the year. In addition, Mancuso was named a first-team AVCA All-American, while Werth, Morgan Broekhuis and Cook were tabbed honorable-mention picks.

In 2010 the Huskers won their 12th conference title as a member of the Big 12 with an overall record of 29-3. The team advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight, while Brooke Delano was named an AVCA first-team All-American. Lindsey Licht and Werth were second-team picks. Werth was also tabbed the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year, Cook was named Co-Big 12 Coach of the Year and Lauren Cook was the league's newcomer of the year.

During the 2009 season, Nebraska overcame a slow start to play its best volleyball down the stretch. The Huskers won 10 straight matches - all by sweep - before falling to eventual NCAA runner-up Texas in the regional final. NU finished with a 26-7 record and was ranked fifth in the final AVCA poll. Delano and Sydney Anderson earned AVCA All-America honors, while Kori Cooper repeated as a first-team CoSIDA Academic All-American.

In 2007, the Huskers set a pair of NCAA single-match attendance records and won the Big 12 title for the fourth consecutive year. The Huskers advanced to the NCAA regional final before a loss to Cal ended a 30-2 season, while a school-record five Huskers earned AVCA All-America awards. Pavan, Houghtelling and Tracy Stalls all earned first-team CoSIDA Academic All-America honors.

The 2005 campaign was a special one for the Nebraska program. The Huskers advanced to the national title match for the fifth time in school history and finished with a 33-2 mark. Nebraska led the nation in blocking (4.12 per game) and ranked in the top 10 nationally in assists, kills and hitting percentage. Four Huskers earned AVCA All-America honors, while Houghtelling was named AVCA National Player of the Year.

Cook has also been instrumental in helping to expand the program's visibility throughout the state and the Midwest. Nebraska played a regular-season match in North Platte in 2004, and the team has played exhibition matches in Scottsbluff, Ogallala, Wayne, Grand Island and Norfolk over the last decade. In addition, Cook's efforts have helped Nebraska enjoy one of the most extensive multi-media packages in the country, as every match is carried live on a state-wide radio network and nearly every contest is shown either live on television or streamed live on the Internet.

"It is a reflection of Nebraska volleyball and the program, and not about one person or one player," Cook said when accepting the AVCA Coach-of-the-Year Award in 2005. "We're trying to be a leader in the sport. We're trying to take risks and dream big, and fortunately I'm surrounded by a lot of people who have that vision. I'm really proud of what we're doing to try and enhance the sport."

Three Straight 30-Win Seasons

Cook immediately started to create his own legacy after taking over for Pettit. In his first season at the helm, Cook was named the AVCA National Coach of the Year after guiding the Huskers to a 34-0 record and the 2000 national championship. The Huskers, who became just the second team in NCAA history to cap an undefeated season with a national title, were ranked No. 1 in the AVCA/USA Today Top 25 poll for 14 straight weeks. Greichaly Cepero earned AVCA National Player-of-the-Year honors. Three Huskers claimed AVCA All-America certificates, and five Nebraska players were named to the All-Big 12 teams. Laura Pilakowski earned CoSIDA Academic All-America honors, and a conference-best seven Huskers earned academic All-Big 12 recognition.

In 2001, Cook's second season, Nebraska fell just two wins short of capturing another NCAA title. The Huskers, who were ranked either No. 1 or No. 2 in the AVCA poll all season, went 20-0 in the Big 12 and Cook was named the Big 12 Coach of the Year. NU finished the season with a 31-2 record after falling to eventual national champion Stanford in the NCAA semifinals. Nebraska placed four players on the AVCA All-America teams, while right side hitter Nancy Metcalf was selected as an NCAA Top Ten Award winner and was also named the CoSIDA Academic All-American of the Year. Pilakowski and Cepero joined Metcalf on the CoSIDA Academic All-America teams, as Pilakowski earned second-team honors and Cepero received third-team recognition.

In Cook's third season, the Huskers continued their remarkable success. NU finished the season ranked fifth in the AVCA poll with a 31-2 record to secure its third straight 30-win season. Nebraska produced the most dominant conference season in school history, going 20-0 and losing just two sets en route to winning the league championship for the third straight year. Cepero and Amber Holmquist again earned first-team AVCA All-America honors, and Pilakowski was recognized on the second team. Pilakowski was named a first-team CoSIDA Academic All-American, and Holmquist was a second-team pick. Cepero, Holmquist and Pilakowski shared Big 12 Player-of-the-Year accolades.

Q AND A WITH COACH COOK

A licensed pilot, John Cook had an opportunity to fly with the Blue Angels when they were in town for the Lincoln Air Show.

What is your coaching philosophy?

There are four things that come to mind. No. 1, I see myself as a teacher. It was always my dream to be a teacher, and coaching is teaching. No. 2, next to my family and my faith, the people involved with Nebraska volleyball are the most important thing in my life.

Third we like to recruit great athletes and are flexible enough to create a system that takes advantage of the strengths of the players in our program, so our players can reach their full potential. How can we make each athlete the best volleyball player they can be? That's the question we try to answer. Finally, our players are committed to academic excellence and becoming complete student-athletes.

What do you enjoy most about coaching at Nebraska?

There are two things that make coaching at Nebraska so special. First, it is the passion of the people across the state for our team. There is a love affair between our players and the fans across the state.

Second, is that our players are great young women who work hard, make great choices and are excellent students. In 2006, we won an NCAA title, as well as the Life Skills Award for the athletic department. We have a group of people who are committed to giving back to the community and understand that there is more to college life than volleyball.

When you are recruiting a potential student-athlete, what are Nebraska's biggest selling points?

I think the best thing for a recruit to do is see our team play. We play at a high level, but what may be most important, is how we play. It's a very exciting brand of volleyball based on great athletes moving very quickly and transitioning very fast. We've always had a reputation of taking great athletes and training them to become exceptional volleyball players.

We have a great academic tradition with our academic support staff, the Hewitt Center and our Student Life Complex. We lead the nation in academic All-America honors, NCAA Top Ten Award winners and the majority of our players go on to graduate school following their playing careers.

I think another important factor is the exposure our program receives. Our goal is to be on the cutting edge. We are the only program in the country that has its own volleyball radio network and nearly every match shown live on the Internet. This gives us opportunities to connect with our fans, and has played a major role in our sellout streak.

Our school's rich volleyball tradition over the years also plays an important role in recruiting. In many cases, people know they were meant to be here.

What do you look for in a recruit?

Academically we have a tradition of great student-athletes. Because the program's emphasis is on being accountable, the program attracts people who have already been successful in the classroom. But we've also taken some people who were merely good students and helped them become great students.

In addition to looking for great student-athletes, the players we attract to Nebraska are ones who not only have the athletic ability to be successful, but also are highly competitive. They don't shy away from challenges, whether it is in practices or in matches because they know it will allow them to reach their full potential as a player.

We are also in a unique situation at Nebraska where our student-athletes have a platform to make a difference in people's lives. We look for people who are going to embrace that opportunity and give back to the community.

Talk about your program's emphasis on developing players for their post-collegiate careers?

At Nebraska, we believe that the program we put in place gives our players a chance to play beyond their college career. When I was with the men's national team for the 1992 Olympics, I got an understanding of what it takes to be the best in the world. We've tried to implement that at Nebraska and call it Training the Whole Athlete.

It just doesn't mean we are going to make them a great volleyball player. Obviously, we are going to do that and our program's success reflects that. We are going to train them mentally on how to compete at the highest level and continue on if they elect to do so. It is also about getting them to understand the self-discipline it takes to work in the weight room, understanding their bodies and knowing how to take care of them in areas such as flexibility, recovery and nutrition.

Our mission in this program is two-fold. One is prepare them if they want to have a professional career. Second, many of our former players are going into coaching, and they are leaving Nebraska armed with lots of information. If they can go into coaching, they have the ability to make a tremendous impact on the lives of other people with that information. It is a two-fold mission, and we feel that our program has a great understanding and implements it as well as anyone in the country in a college setting.

What do you hope student-athletes take from their years with the Nebraska volleyball program?

First, we hope they have the opportunity to play professionally. We've had countless former players play around the world and that is a testament to their hard work in reaching their playing potential. Another way we measure that is by how many of them go into coaching after they graduate. Over 50 percent of our former players are in the coaching ranks, whether it is at the college, high school or club level.

The second thing we want them to understand is the importance of giving back. At Nebraska, our players are viewed by the public and kids in the state with almost a rock star status. What we hope they learned at Nebraska is to use that platform to create a positive message and take that lesson throughout their lives.

Dan Meske (pronounced MESS-key) is in his eighth season with the Huskers and fourth season as a full-time assistant. He was promoted prior to the 2011 season after serving as the team's volunteer coach in 2009 and 2010. Meske also served as the team's graduate manager in 2007 and 2008. Meske is in charge of coordinating the Huskers' blocking and defense as well as video scouting, team managers and assisting with camps. On the court, he trains NU's middle blockers.

In his seven seasons at Nebraska, Meske has helped the Huskers to a 193-34 record, three Big 12 Championships, a Big Ten Championship, seven NCAA Tournament appearances, five regional finals and an appearance in the 2008 NCAA Semifinals.

In 2013 Meske helped guide a young Husker squad to a 26-7 record, second-place finish in the Big Ten Conference and a berth in the NCAA Lincoln Regional Final. Nebraska opened in a rotation featuring all first-or second-year Huskers in 29 of its 33 matches in 2013. His work with the middle blockers helped two Huskers record over 10 blocks in a match three times in 2013 and earn Big Ten Defensive Player-of-the-Week accolades twice. Nebraska sophomore Cecilia Hall finished the year ranked third in the Big Ten in blocks, while sophomore Meghan Haggerty was ninth in the conference. The Huskers ranked 14th nationally in blocks per set with an average of 2.84, and all Husker middle blockers were either sophomores or freshmen.

In 2012, Meske helped the Huskers to a berth in the NCAA Regional Finals and a second-place finish in the Big Ten Conference. The Huskers posted a record of 26-7 improving their tournament record to 86-28 while making their 31st straight trip to the NCAA Tournament. In addition, Lauren Cook, Gina Mancuso and Hannah Werth all earned AVCA All-America honors. The Huskers also posted four All-Big Ten picks and seven academic All-Big Ten accolades.

During the 2011 season the Huskers made history with their first Big Ten Conference title as they won their 32nd overall conference crown. Nebraska recorded an overall record of 25-5 on the year. The team recorded its 30th straight trip to the NCAA Tournament. Mancuso captured first-team AVCA All-America honors, while Werth, Morgan Broekhuis and Cook were tabbed honorable-mention picks. NU notched five All-Big Ten picks as well as six academic All-Big Ten selections.

In 2010 the Huskers won their 12th Big 12 Conference title with an overall record of 29-3. Meske was key in the continued development of right side hitter Lindsey Licht, who earned second-team AVCA All-America accolades as a senior in 2010. She led the team in kills with 2.81 per set and was second in blocks with a career-best 1.05 per set.

During the 2009 season, Nebraska overcame a slow start to play its best volleyball down the stretch. The Huskers won 10 straight matches - all by sweep - before falling to eventual national runner-up Texas in the regional final. NU finished with a 26-7 record and was ranked fifth in the final AVCA poll. Following the season at the annual AVCA Convention, Meske earned the association's inaugural AVCA Coaches 4 Coaches Scholarship Award.

Other Coaching Experience

Meske has also been an active coach on the junior scene. From 2004 to 2009, Meske worked as a club and camp coach for Sports Performance Volleyball Club out of Chicago. Most notably, Meske led his Sports Performance 16s team to a club silver medal in the 2009 AAU National Championships. In 2012, Meske also led his vNebraska 14s team to an open silver medal in the 2012 AAU National Championships.

Playing Experience

Meske enjoyed a solid four-year career for Coach Pete Hanson at Ohio State. Meske appeared in 117 career matches for the Buckeyes, helping OSU to a national semifinal appearance in 2005. Ohio State won 88 matches and a pair of Midwestern Intercollegiate Volleyball Association titles during his four-year career. He was a three-time academic All-Big Ten selection and four-time Ohio State Scholar-Athlete during his collegiate career.

Meske enjoyed his best campaign in 2007, helping the Buckeyes to a 23-4 record and a regular-season MIVA title. A starter at opposite, he ranked second on the squad in both kills (3.04) and digs (1.39) per set to earn second-team MIVA honors. He was named the Buckeye Power Club Award winner as the team's lifter of the year and was selected as the team's most-improved player.

For the first three seasons at Ohio State, he served as the team's libero and defensive specialist, starting all 30 matches at libero in his first college season. He led the Buckeyes in both digs (198) and digs per set (2.04) in 2004.

After graduating from Ohio State, Meske spent a season playing professionally in Indonesia, helping BNI Taplus Volleyball to a regular-season title and a national runner-up finish in 2008.

A native of Willow Springs, Ill., Meske played three seasons at Lyons Township High School. He earned first-team all-state honors in 2003, after leading his team to a fourth-place finish at the state championship.

Meske received his bachelor's degree in construction systems management from Ohio State in 2007, and received his master's degree in leadership development from Nebraska in June of 2010.

DANI BUSBOOM KELLY

Assistant Coach • Third Season • Nebraska (2007)

Dani Busboom Kelly joined Head Coach John Cook's staff in July of 2012 after spending the previous season at Louisville. She enters her third season with NU and assists Coach Cook with Nebraska's setters, liberos and outside hitters.

In 2013 Busboom Kelly helped guide a young Husker squad to a 26-7 record, second-place finish in the Big Ten Conference and a berth in the NCAA Lincoln Regional Final. Nebraska opened in a rotation featuring all first-or second-year Huskers in 29 of its 33 matches in 2013. She helped train the Husker defensive specialists and liberos, a group that included three true freshmen, to one of Nebraska's most successful recent passing and defensive campaigns. Justine Wong-Orantes led the Huskers defensively in her freshman season, posting 399 total digs on the year and an average of 3.50 digs per set. She ended the season ranked ninth in the Big Ten in digs. She tied the school record for digs by a freshman and tied for ninth on Nebraska's single-season list. Busboom Kelly also helped train Mary Pollmiller as Nebraska's setter in 2013, as Pollmiller guided the Huskers to a successful offensive campaign in her first season as NU's setter, earning honorable-mention AVCA All-America honors.

Busboom Kelly helped the Huskers to a berth in the NCAA Regional Finals and a second-place finish in the Big Ten Conference in 2012. The Huskers posted a record of 26-7 and improved their tournament record to 86-28 while making their 31st straight trip to the NCAA Tournament. In addition, Lauren Cook, Gina Mancuso and Hannah Werth all earned AVCA All-America honors. The Huskers also posted four All-Big Ten picks and seven academic All-Big Ten accolades.

Other Coaching Experience

During her season at Louisville, Busboom helped the Cardinals to a 24-9 record including a trip to the semifinals of the Big East Conference Tournament.

Prior to her time at Louisville, Busboom was an assistant coach at Tennessee from 2009 to 2011. While working with the Volunteers, she guided the team's setters, coordinated travel and equipment needs and ran the school's volleyball camps.

Playing Experience

As a captain at Nebraska, Busboom moved from setter to libero in 2006 to help Nebraska's defense and finished her career as one of only two players to rank among NU's all-time leaders in both digs (1,281, second) and assists (2,873, eighth). She was a four-year starter for Cook, guiding NU to a 124-10 record, the best four-year mark in school history, three Big 12 titles, two NCAA finals appearances and a national title in 2006.

Busboom was considered the Big 12's best libero in 2006, as she helped NU limit opponents to a Big 12-low .144 hitting percentage. She set Nebraska's single-season digs record (580) in her first year as a libero, breaking the previous mark of 480 by Amanda McCormick in 2004. As a senior she reached double figures in digs in 32 of 34 matches, including 21 straight matches with at least 10 digs. She notched her best defensive performance at the NCAA semifinals against UCLA, totaling a career-high 29 digs, which ranks as the second-best postseason performance in school history.

In addition to her accomplishments on the court, Busboom excelled off the court for the Huskers. She was a 2006 second-team academic All-District VII selection, while earning six Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll accolades and becoming a three-time first-team academic All-Big 12 honoree. She earned a bachelor's degree in communication studies from Nebraska in 2007.

Following her graduation, Busboom spent time with the U.S. Women's National Training Team before working as a sales representative for an Omaha insurance company. She has worked as a sideline reporter for radio broadcasts of Nebraska volleyball matches on the Husker Sports Network and also as an assistant coach with USA Volleyball's Select A2 Program. Dani and her husband, former Nebraska football player Lane Kelly, were married in the summer of 2010.

DAN MADER

Volunteer Coach • First Season • IPFW (2012)

Dan Mader joins the Nebraska volleyball program for his first season as a volunteer coach in 2014. He served as a graduate manager for the Huskers in 2013. Mader also served as the master coach for the 15-17 age division with Volleyball Club Nebraska in 2014, while also coaching the 14 Elite team.

Before Nebraska

Mader boasts experience as both a coach and player. For the past two seasons, he has been a coach with the Sports Performance Volleyball Club in Chicago. In 2012, Mader led the 18 Red team to an AAU national championship in the club division. The following season, Mader assisted Rick Butler with the 18 Elite team that won the national title in the open division.

As a player, Mader competed in 96 matches during his four-year career at IPFW from 2009 to 2012 under AVCA Hall of Fame coach Arnie Ball. A setter, Mader amassed 2,231 career assists, good for seventh in IPFW history. He also added 34 aces, 274 blocks and 279 digs in 96 career matches for the Mastadons.

As a freshman in 2009, Mader led IPFW with 670 assists, while adding 17 kills, 29 blocks, 63 digs and six aces. He enjoyed his best season as a sophomore in 2010, when he tallied 1,180 assists while averaging 12.69 assists per set. In addition to posting the 14th-highest single-season assist total in program history, Mader notched career-high totals of 65 assists, 14 digs, six blocks and five aces as a sophomore.

Mader split time as the Mastadons' setter in 2011, compiling 368 assists, including a season-high 56 assists against Penn State, when he posted a double-double after tying his career high with 10 kills.

During his senior season in 2012, Mader appeared in 22 matches primarily as an attacker. He totaled a career-high 45 kills as a senior, including a career-high 11 kills against Grand Canyon. Mader added 13 assists, 13 blocks, 36 digs and three aces as a senior.

Following his playing career, Mader earned his bachelor's degree in general studies with minors in anthropology and communications from IPFW in 2012. He is a native of Lombard, Ill.

LINDSAY PETERSON

Director of Volleyball Operations • Ninth Season • Nebraska (2003)

Former Husker volleyball standout Lindsay Peterson is in her ninth year as Director of Operations for the Nebraska volleyball program. A former Husker volleyball captain and one of the greatest defensive players in school history, Peterson was hired in 2006 after serving assistant coaching stints at Northern Colorado and Virginia Tech.

At Nebraska, Peterson handles a variety of duties for the Husker volleyball team, including team travel, budgeting, coordinating tournaments and camps and assisting visiting teams. She also serves as a liaison for volleyball support units, including facilities and events, media relations, marketing, compliance, HuskerVision, the ticket office, alumni and The Match Club. She also provides radio color commentary during Nebraska's road matches.

In addition to her duties on the Husker staff, Peterson served as a club coach for Nebraska Juniors, helping the 15-and-under team to a USA Junior Olympic national title in 2010.

Before Nebraska

Peterson came to Nebraska after serving as an assistant coach in the Northern Colorado program from March of 2005 to July of 2006. At Northern Colorado, she worked extensively with the setters and liberos and helped with recruiting in the Midwest. In 2005, she helped a pair of Northern Colorado players earn first-team Division I Independent honors, including libero Abby Mayne, who was named Division I Independent Co-Defensive Player of the Year after averaging 4.44 digs per game.

After serving as an undergraduate assistant coach at Nebraska in 2003, Peterson was on the staff at Virginia Tech in 2004, helping the Hokies finish with a 13-16 record, including a 7-9 mark in the program's first season in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Playing Experience

During her playing days, Peterson was a four-year performer in the Nebraska program from 1999 to 2002, helping the Huskers to a 123-10 record, including a national title in 2000. Peterson played in 133 matches as a Husker, including 438 of a possible 440 career sets. She finished her career holding the school record with 1,111 career digs, despite playing three positions during her Nebraska career. She competed as a setter her freshman year and a defensive specialist her sophomore and junior years before taking over the newly created libero role in 2002. That season she averaged 3.35 digs per set, a total that was fourth in school history at the time. As a setter in 1999, she posted a then-freshman record 724 set assists.

In the classroom, Peterson was a three-time, first-team academic All-Big 12 selection, a six-time selection to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll and finished her degree in business administration at Nebraska in 2003, when she served as an undergraduate assistant coach. In that role, she assisted with recruiting, game day preparation and various coaching duties.

A native of Burchard, Neb., the former Lindsay Wischmeier led Lewiston High School to a pair of Class D-2 State Championships (1995 and 1997) and earned D-2 Player-of-the-Year honors while also being a three-time academic all-state selection. She married Ty Peterson in May of 2007, and the couple welcomed the birth of their first son, Drake, in May of 2013.

BRIAN KMITTA

Strength & Conditioning Coach • Sixth Year

Brian Kmitta joined the Nebraska Athletic Department staff as an assistant strength coach in 2009. Kmitta serves as the strength and conditioning coach for volleyball, men's and women's tennis, men's and women's golf, the track and field program and the diving team.

Originally from South Bend, Ind., Kmitta graduated from Anderson University, where he received his bachelor's degree in physical education in 2004. His final year in college, Kmitta worked as a student assistant for the football team's offensive line, and as strength and conditioning coach.

After graduation, Kmitta served as assistant running backs coach and strength and conditioning coach at Anderson. He then spent a year at the University of Louisville as an intern strength and conditioning coach, before coming to Nebraska as an intern in the strength and conditioning program in 2006.

Bria and his wife, Sarah, welcomed the birth of a son, Brian III, on Sept. 18, 2013.

JOLENE EMRICSON

Athletic Trainer • 13th Year

Jolene Emricson is in her 13th season as the athletic trainer for the Nebraska volleyball team in 2014. In her role, she evaluates and treats injuries as well as oversees rehabilitation programs for the Husker volleyball team and supervises the athletic training needs of the NU softball team.

Before arriving in Lincoln, Emricson spent one year as the athletic trainer for the men's lacrosse team at the University of Denver, where she also assisted with the men's ice hockey team.

Emricson, who is from Colorado Springs, Colo., earned a bachelor of arts degree from Metropolitan State College of Denver in human performance and sport with a concentration in athletic training. While at Metro State, Emricson worked with the women's soccer, women's basketball and baseball programs.

She received her master's degree in education from the University of Nebraska in May of 2004.

DENNIS LEBLANC

Senior Associate A.D. for Academics • 27th Year

Dennis Leblanc was named Nebraska's Senior Associate Athletic Director for Academics in 2007, after being promoted from Associate Athletic Director for Academic Programs and Student Services. He was named an associate athletic director in 1998 and has directed the academic program since 1993. Leblanc, who has been with the Academic Support Program for Student-Athletes since 1987, joined the Nebraska Athletic Department in 1983 as a member of the track and field staff.

Under Leblanc's leadership, Nebraska has become the national leader in CoSIDA Academic All-Americans for volleyball and all sports and NCAA Today's Top Ten Award honorees. Since he joined the academic staff in 1987, 238 of Nebraska's 314 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans have been honored, while NU has claimed 14 of its 17 NCAA Top Ten Award recipients. More than 2,700 Husker student-athletes have earned their degrees.

Over the past decade, Nebraska's academic support program for student-athletes has received outstanding reviews from the NCAA Certification Review Team and the Nebraska Faculty Intercollegiate Athletic Committee. In 2012, Nebraska's program became one of only 21 programs nationally to be certified by the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletes (N4A) for meeting the established standards of service for student-athletes as outlined by the N4A.

In 2002, Leblanc received the prestigious N4A Lan Hewlett Award in recognition of distinguished performance in providing personal, academic and professional guidance to student-athletes.

Leblanc was presented the Chancellor's Award for Exemplary Service to Students at the 2004 University of Nebraska Honors Convocation, which recognizes individuals who go above and beyond their assigned duties, devoting extra time and effort in serving the needs of students. In 2005, he was presented with Honorary Mortar Board membership honoring him for his leadership and service to students. In 2007, Leblanc received the Hero Mentor Award through the American Red Cross, which annually recognizes a person for outstanding leadership and mentoring.

Leblanc earned his undergraduate degree from Bethany College, and a master's degree from Wichita State. He and his wife, Coreen, have four children, including daughters Olivia and twins Madeleine and Mackenzie, and a son, Christian.

HARVEY PERLMAN, J.D.

University of Nebraska Chancellor • 14th Year • Nebraska (1963)

Harvey Perlman was named the 19th Chancellor of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln on April 1, 2001. He had served as Interim Chancellor of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln since July 16, 2000.

A former dean of the University of Nebraska College of Law (1983-98), Perlman has also served as interim senior vice chancellor for academic affairs at UNL (1995-96).

A Nebraska native, Perlman was raised in York, and earned a bachelor of arts in history and a juris doctorate from the University of Nebraska. During his law school years, he was editor in chief of the Nebraska Law Review and was elected to the Order of the Coif, a law honors society.

He joined the NU law faculty in 1967 after spending a year as a Bigelow Teaching Fellow at the University of Chicago Law School. He served on the Nebraska law faculty until 1974 when he joined the faculty at the University of Virginia Law School. He returned to Nebraska in 1983 when he accepted the deanship of the Nebraska Law College, a post he held until 1998 when he returned to the professoriate. He has also served as a visiting professor at Florida State University College of Law, the University of Puget Sound School of Law and the University of Iowa College of Law.

In 2011, Perlman was named an Honorary University Professor of Xi'an Jiaotong University, in Xi'an, China. This rare lifetime appointment entitles Perlman to privileges at the university, with which UNL has many institutional ties. Perlman also will occasionally lecture and teach at Xi'an Jiaotong University. The title is the highest honor the university awards to a foreign scholar, and recognizes Perlman as an accomplished scholar or professional of important international reputation. The award also recognizes Perlman for his significant efforts in globalizing UNL and Xi'an Jiaotong University through joint research and partnership degree programs.

His area of legal expertise lies in torts and intellectual property. He is a member of the Nebraska State and American Bar Associations and is a Life Fellow of the American Bar Association. Perlman is co-author of "Intellectual Property and Unfair Competition" (5th edition, 1998) and co-reporter for the American Law Institute's "Restatement of Unfair Competition" (1994). He serves on the Council of the American Law Institute, a leading national law reform organization and as one of Nebraska's Commissioners of Uniform State Laws. He previously served as a member of the NCAA Board of Directors and is past chair of the Bowl Championship Series Presidential Oversight Committee. He serves on the Board of Directors of the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce and is Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Nebraska Innovation Campus Development Corporation. He received the George Turner Award from the Nebraska State Bar Association for contributions to the legal profession and the Roger T. Larson Community Builder Award from the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce.

Perlman and his wife, Susan, an NU alumna, are the parents of two daughters. Anne, who earned degrees from UNL and the University of Nebraska Medical Center, practices medicine in Lincoln and is married to UNL alumnus David Spinar; they have three children; Will, Ava, and Marco, Husker fans all. Daughter Amie, who received bachelors and juris doctorate degrees from UNL, is a Nebraska assistant attorney general and is married to UNL alumnus Ron Larson; they are the parents of Caleb and Finn.

JOSEPHINE POTUTO, J.D.

Faculty Athletics Representative • 17th year • Douglass College (1971)

Josephine (Jo) R. Potuto, the Richard H. Larson Professor of Constitutional Law, has been Nebraska's faculty representative (FAR) at the NCAA and conference level since May 15, 1997.

In 2002, Potuto was named Outstanding Faculty Athletics Representative by the All-American Football Foundation. From 2008-09 to 2011-12 she was president of the 1A FAR (FARs from FBS institutions). Among her NCAA positions, Potuto spent nine years (the maximum) on the NCAA Division I Committee on Infractions (chair her last two years) and currently substitutes when a member cannot serve. She served on the NCAA Division I Management Council, served on the NCAA Men's Gymnastics Championship Committee and currently serves on an NCAA-wide (all divisions) committee to advise NCAA staff on student-athlete issues and educational programming for coaches, staff and student-athletes.

A sports law expert, Potuto regularly lectures and consults on sports issues in general and NCAA processes in particular. She is an expert witness in litigation involving sports issues. She testified before the House Subcommittee on the Constitution regarding due process in NCAA infractions hearings.

In the past year she has appeared in media reports in the NY Times, LA Times, USA Today, Washington Post, CBSports.com, and the Chronicle of Higher Education, among others. She has presented to the Knight Commission on Intercollegiate Athletics, the Texas Commission of Higher Education, NCAA regional conferences, law conferences and law firms, NACDA, and to universities and law colleges, including the Universities of Istanbul, Washington, Maryland, Oklahoma, Santa Clara, Baltimore and Mississippi.

Potuto is a past adviser to the Uniform Law Commissioners Committee to draft a sports agent statute, has drafted rules governing search and seizure and hearings for the Nebraska Racing Commission, and also has written on issues of gender equity in college athletics. She has authored numerous articles on sports law issues. She just completed an article on student-athlete use of their names/likenesses with an econometrician and tax professor.

Potuto delivered the 2012 Chancellor's Distinguished Lecture. She serves on the senate's intercollegiate athletics committee. She is a past member of the UNL academic senate and also served on Nebraska's NCAA site certification steering committee.

Potuto teaches constitutional law, procedure, federal jurisdiction, and sports law. She has been a visiting professor of law at the University of Arizona, Rutgers University, the Cardozo College of Law at New York's Yeshiva University, the University of Oregon, the University of North Carolina, and Seton Hall University. She has worked as an assistant prosecutor in both the Essex and Morris County (N.J.) prosecutor's offices.

Potuto was project director and a drafter of the Uniform Law Commissioners Sentencing and Corrections Act, as well as the drafter for the Nebraska Supreme Court Committee to Draft Criminal Jury Instructions. She is the author of three books. She was elected to membership in the American Law Institute, the Nebraska State Bar Foundation, and the Douglass Society.

Potuto earned her bachelor's degree in journalism at Rutgers' Douglass College, and her master's degree in English literature at Seton Hall. She earned her juris doctorate at the Rutgers Law College.

She is a member of the bars of Nebraska and New Jersey and is admitted to practice before the U.S. Supreme Court, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit, and the U.S. District Courts for Nebraska and New Jersey.

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA BOARD OF REGENTS

The Board of Regents consists of eight voting members elected by district for six-year terms, and four non-voting student Regents, one from each campus, who serve during their tenure as student body president. The board supervises the general operations of the university, and the control and direction of all expenditures. The board also includes a corporation secretary who manages all records including agendas, minutes, notices, policies and bylaws. Those documents can be found at nebraska.edu/board/.

The board meets regularly, primarily in Lincoln but also in Omaha and greater Nebraska. Persons wishing to provide information to the board or to appear before it should contact: Corporation Secretary, University of Nebraska, Varner Hall, 3835 Holdrege, Lincoln, NE 68583.

SHAWN EICHORST

Director of Athletics • Second Year • Wisconsin-Whitewater (1990)

Shawn Eichorst was named Nebraska's 14th Director of Athletics on Oct. 4, 2012, by Chancellor Harvey Perlman. Eichorst leads a tradition-rich athletic program of 24 varsity intercollegiate teams, 600-plus student-athletes and more than 275 full-time employees. Nebraska's reputation as a world-class academic institution and its stature as one of the strongest and most balanced athletic departments in collegiate athletics supports Eichorst's top priority, which is to ensure all Husker student-athletes have the necessary support to succeed in academics, athletics and life.

Since taking over for the legendary Tom Osborne as Director of Athletics on Jan. 3, 2013, Eichorst has immersed himself in Nebraska's rich traditions. He has made nearly 300 public appearances, including nearly 200 speaking engagements in Nebraska. He serves on the Chancellor's Senior Administrative Team and regularly meets with campus administrators and deans. Eichorst's monthly radio show and Connecting on Campus column promote the university's academic and athletic successes, along with the academic and community achievements of Husker student-athletes.

Eichorst was also the first Director of Athletics to visit the Big Ten-based Committee on Institutional Cooperation (CIC) at its Champaign, Ill., headquarters. The CIC is a highly successful academic-based consortium of 15 schools, including all 14 in the Big Ten Conference. Nebraska is leading the Big Ten and the CIC in several areas, including the Digital Humanities and head injury research.

Under Eichorst's watch, Nebraska extended its nation-leading total of CoSIDA Academic All-Americans to 314, including seven in 2013-14. NU also increased its nation-leading total to 17 NCAA Top Ten Award winners, as Mary Weatherholt (women's tennis) earned the honor in 2014. A total of 279 Huskers were honored at the Student-Athlete Recognition Banquet, and 208 Husker student-athletes earned academic All-Big Ten honors in 2013-14, an increase of 20 from 2012-13.

In 2013-14, Nebraska became one of only two NCAA institutions – and the first Big Ten program in history – to qualify for a football bowl game, and advance to NCAA postseason play in the major team sports of volleyball, soccer, men's and women's basketball, baseball and softball. Nebraska was the only institution to win a postseason game in six of those seven sports.

The NU football team completed its sixth straight nine-win season, while playing in its third consecutive New Year's Day bowl game, a win over Georgia. The volleyball team advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight in its first season at the Devaney Center. The Husker soccer team qualified for the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2005, and advanced to the second round after winning Big Ten regular-season and tournament titles.

The women's basketball team captured Nebraska's first-ever conference tournament title while earning an NCAA Tournament win for the second straight year. The Huskers also hosted an NCAA Regional at Pinnacle Bank Arena – the first time since 1993 that NCAA Tournament basketball came to Lincoln. The men's basketball team earned Nebraska's first trip to the NCAA Tournament since 1998, following a top-four Big Ten finish. The men's and women's basketball teams qualified for the NCAA Tournament in the same season for the first time since 1998.

The bowling team earned an NCAA runner-up finish, and the rifle team finished fifth at the NCAA Championships. The women's gymnastics program made the NCAA Super Six and earned a share of the Big Ten title. The men's gymnastics team added an eighth-place NCAA finish, while the wrestling team claimed 11th at nationals – its top showing at the NCAA Championships since 2009.

The softball team shared the Big Ten regular-season title and advanced to an NCAA Super Regional for the second straight season. The baseball team earned its first NCAA Tournament bid since 2008. It marked the first time in school history the baseball and men's basketball teams advanced to the NCAA Tournament in the same season.

The men's track and field team finished 12th at the NCAA Outdoor Championships, after finishing 17th at the indoor meet. The women added a 19th-place finish at the NCAA Outdoor Championships.

The Huskers produced 42 All-Americans who won 51 awards, including 29 first-team honors – NU's highest All-America totals in more than a decade.

Nebraska ranked in the top 20 nationally in attendance in football (90,933, 9th), volleyball (8,175, 1st), men's basketball (15,419, 13th), women's basketball (6,161, 11th), baseball (3,241, 15th) and softball (963) in 2013-14. NU's football, men's basketball and volleyball attendances were all school records, and the Huskers extended NCAA-record home sellout streaks in both football (333) and volleyball (200).

Nebraska is focusing on improving the game-day atmosphere at every venue, including a $12.3 million upgrade of its wireless networks in and around Memorial Stadium in 2014. It is the largest wireless network system installation at a college stadium in history. The upgrade includes a new sound system, IPTV system installation and innovative smartphone applications.

In the summer of 2013, Memorial Stadium expansion increased capacity while adding the innovative Nebraska Athletic Performance Laboratory (NAPL) inside East Stadium next to the Center for Brain, Biology and Behavior (CB3). The men's and women's basketball teams became the primary tenants at Pinnacle Bank Arena, and the renovated Devaney Center became the home of the Husker volleyball, wrestling and men's and women's gymnastics programs.

The next major facility project is a world-class, $20.4 million Nebraska Soccer and Tennis Complex, located just north of the Devaney Center and Innovation Campus. When completed in 2015, the facilities will rank among the best in the Big Ten.

Eichorst came to Nebraska after serving as Director of Athletics at Miami in 2011 and 2012. During his tenure, Eichorst helped grow the academic reputation of an already sterling program with NCAA Top 10 recognition in Academic Progress Rates (APR) for five programs – football, baseball, men's diving, women's cross country and women's golf. Miami's Hurricane Club grew to more than 5,000 nationwide. A total of $19 million in student-athlete support was generated in 2011-12, and $14.2 million in capital gifts was raised for the Center for Athletic Excellence.

Eichorst hired legendary men's basketball coach Jim Larrañaga, and the Hurricanes advanced to the NIT second round. The women's basketball program posted the highest national ranking in school history (No. 5) and advanced to the NCAA second round. The women's tennis team advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight for the fourth straight season, and the baseball team made its 40th consecutive NCAA appearance. The women's soccer team posted the first NCAA Tournament win in history, and the volleyball team made its third straight NCAA Tournament trip.

Before heading to Miami, Eichorst was the Deputy Athletics Director at Wisconsin from 2009 to 2011. He was the Chief Operating Officer and oversaw the day-to-day operations (23 intercollegiate programs, 850 student-athletes, 320 full-time employees) under Director of Athletics and former Husker Barry Alvarez. Eichorst was involved in the design and planning of a new ice hockey and swimming facility, and the Student-Athlete Performance Center at Camp Randall Stadium.

At South Carolina, Eichorst oversaw daily operations of the department and supervised Lou Holtz's and Steve Spurrier's football programs and Ray Tanner's baseball program. The football team was bowl-eligible each season, and the baseball team competed in the 2004 College World Series. Additionally, he coordinated and supervised multi-million dollar facility projects, including a football training facility.

From 1999 to 2003, Eichorst served as the Director of Athletics at Wisconsin-Whitewater, which produced four top 10 percent NACDA Directors Cup finishes, one NCAA team title, two NCAA runner-up finishes and five individual national champions. The program also featured 11 CoSIDA Academic All-America selections, seven NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship winners and 74 All-Americans.

A native of Lone Rock, Wis., Eichorst was an all-conference defensive back, three-time letterwinner and 1990 football team captain for Wisconsin-Whitewater. He graduated magna cum laude in business from UW-Whitewater in 1990 and earned a law degree from Marquette in 1995. He practiced law in Milwaukee until 1999. He is a past member of the NCAA Division I Student-Athlete Reinstatement Committee and the State Bar of Wisconsin Board of Governors. He previously served as an assistant adjunct professor of law at Marquette Law School, where he taught classes in sports law. He serves on the Marquette University National Sports Law Institute Board of Advisors. In 2006, Marquette awarded Eichorst the Sports Law Alumnus of the Year award. He also is a graduate of the Sports Management Institute and serves on its Executive Committee.

Eichorst and his wife Kristin have three sons: Jack, Joseph and Bennett.

PAT LOGSDON

Associate A.D./Senior Woman Administrator • 35th Year • Nebraska (1989)

A member of the Nebraska Athletic Department since 1979, Pat Logsdon serves as Senior Associate Athletic Director for Administration and is a member of NU's senior management team. She is Nebraska's Senior Woman Administrator to the NCAA and the Big Ten Conference and serves on the Big Ten Sports Management Council.

Logsdon's duties include oversight on all administrative issues and operational functions of the Athletic Director's office. She also oversees Department Travel, including bowl and postseason travel, the Department's Gender Equity Plan, equipment and serves as a liaison to adidas.

In addition, Logsdon manages student-athlete end of season evaluations and exit interviews. She also serves as the sport administrator for volleyball, sand volleyball, softball and men's and women's gymnastics.

Previously, Logsdon spent 23 seasons as NU's director of football operations, the first female in Division I to serve in that capacity. She handled organization of all recruiting functions, supervised compliance activities and coordinated all football administrative operations, including travel and practice operations.

Logsdon earned a bachelor's degree in education from Nebraska.

COMPLIANCE INFORMATION/GUIDELINES FOR FANS

The University of Nebraska Athletic Department takes great pride in abiding by the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) and the Big Ten Conference rules and guidelines that govern Division I competition. For the benefit of the many alumni, fans and booster club members who are so active in supporting and assisting the Huskers throughout the year, we would like to remind everyone of a few definitions and rules that apply to all athletic representatives and boosters.

NCAA Principles

Institutional Control

It is the responsibility of the University of Nebraska to control its intercollegiate athletic program in compliance with the rules and regulations of the NCAA.

Responsibility

The University of Nebraska's responsibility for the conduct of its program includes responsibility for the actions of its staff members and for the actions of any other individual, booster or organization engaged in activities promoting the athletic interests of the institution.

Compliance

The University of Nebraska must monitor its program to assure compliance and to identify and report to the NCAA instances in which compliance has not been achieved. An institution found to have violated NCAA rules is subject to disciplinary and corrective actions as determined by the NCAA.

Question and Answers for Fans, Boosters, Alumni and Representatives of Athletic Interests

Definitions

Q: What is a booster?

A: Someone who belongs to a University of Nebraska athletic booster club; promotes or makes financial donations to the athletic department or a specific Husker team; assists in the recruitment of prospective student-athletes; employs, gives benefits to, or provides services to a student-athlete, a prospective student-athlete or the relative/friends of either.

REPRESENTATIVE OF ATHLETIC INTERESTS (I.E., BOOSTERS), NCAA BYLAW 13

Q: What is a Prospective Student-Athlete?

A: A prospective student-athlete is a student who has started classes for the ninth grade or above, including students in prep schools and junior colleges as well as students who have officially withdrawn from a four-year institution and plan to transfer to another institution. In addition, a student who has not started classes for the ninth grade becomes a prospective student-athlete if the institution or a Nebraska booster provides the individual or the individual's relatives or friends with any financial assistance or benefits that the institution does not provide to prospective students in general. A good rule of thumb is to treat ALL STUDENTS as prospects.

Q: What is a Student-Athlete?

A: A student-athlete is a student whose enrollment was solicited by a member of the Nebraska athletic staff or other representative of athletic interests with a view toward the student's ultimate participation in the intercollegiate athletic program.

Q: What is a contact?

A: Contact is ANY face-to-face encounter between a prospect, or the prospect's parent or legal guardian, and a Nebraska staff member or athletic representative during which any dialogue occurs.

Q: What is recruiting?

A: Recruiting is any solicitation of a prospect or a prospect's family member (or guardian) by an institutional staff member or by athletic representative of the institution, for the purpose of securing the prospect's enrollment and ultimate participation in Nebraska's intercollegiate athletic program.

Guidelines

Q: What is a Booster?

A: Someone who belongs to a University of Nebraska athletic booster club; promotes or makes financial donations to the athletic department or a specific Husker team; assists in the recruitment of prospective student-athletes; employs, gives benefits to, or provides services to a student-athlete, a prospective student-athlete or the relative/friends of either.

REPRESENTATIVE OF ATHLETIC INTERESTS (I.E., BOOSTERS), NCAA BYLAW 13

Q: What constitutes impermissible contact by a Booster?

A: Phone calls to prospects (9th to 12th grade) and their relatives placed for recruiting purposes (questions about the athletic program at UNL must be directed to the coach); writing, paging, text messages or instant messages to a prospect to encourage UNL attendance; contact with a prospect at a high school or club contest; contact with a prospect or his/her coach, principal, or counselor to evaluate the prospect; visiting the prospect's educational institution to pick up videotape or transcripts for evaluation purposes; contacting a prospect to congratulate him/her for signing a National Letter of Intent to attend UNL; giving anything of value to a prospect to induce him/her to attend UNL; contact of any kind while the prospect is on the UNL campus for an official or unofficial visit.

RECRUITING CONTACTS, NCAA BYLAW 13

Q: What are the rules of employment for a student-athlete?

A: A student-athlete may be employed during the academic year or summer vacation period; receive compensation equal to the going rate for similar services in the locale; receive compensation only for work performed; receive benefits provided to all other employees; teach sport-related individual skill instruction or fee-for-lesson sessions. A student-athlete may not conduct personal sport camps or promote, market, advertise or endorse a commercial business or product.

Only benefits that are authorized by NCAA legislation shall be provided to and accepted by a student-athlete. It is not permissible for a student-athlete to receive a benefit that is the result of a "special" arrangement by an institutional employee, booster, employer or fan.

EMPLOYMENT, NCAA BYLAW 12

Q: What are non-permissible benefits?

A: Free or reduced-fee housing/rent including the use of vacation or seasonal homes; free or reduced-fee meals; loans or cash advances in pay or salary; tuition costs or school supply expenses; gifts or presents of any type regardless of the occasion or purpose; use of telephone for long distance or use of telephone cards and cell phones; free use of any motor vehicle, boat or recreational vehicle; free use of services (i.e., automobile repair, hair care, laundry, copying, faxing, etc.); free or reduced-fee memberships at golf courses, health clubs, etc. (This list is not exhaustive. Only benefits that are authorized by NCAA legislation shall be provided to and accepted by a student-athlete. It is not permissible for a student-athlete to receive a benefit that is the result of a "special" arrangement by an institutional employee, booster, employer or fan.)

BENEFITS AND PREFERENTIAL TREATMENT, NCAA BYLAW 16

Q: What type of promotional activities may the student-athlete be permitted to participate?

A: Charitable, educational or non-profit promotions and events with requested approval from the Athletic Compliance Office prior to the event.

Q: What types of promotional activities are not permissible?

A: Any fundraising activity that supports a high school organization or group that assists prospective-aged students; use of his/her name or picture; or appear to promote or market a commercial business or product.

PROMOTIONAL ACTIVITIES, NCAA BYLAW 12

2013 REVIEW

HUSKERS MAKE REGIONAL FINALS IN 2013

The 2013 season was full of firsts for the Nebraska volleyball program as the Huskers opened a new era at the Bob Devaney Sports Center. After calling the NU Coliseum home for nearly 40 years, the Huskers moved to the Devaney Center as the new home of Nebraska volleyball. The Devaney Center, which received $20 million in renovations designed to create the nation's premier home court advantage for volleyball, helped the Huskers average 8,175 fans per match and lead the nation in attendance for the first time in two decades.

Head Coach John Cook guided a young squad in 2013, as the Huskers welcomed seven newcomers to the team, including All-America transfers Kelsey Robinson and Mary Pollmiller. NU also ushered in the No. 1 recruiting class in the nation.

The Huskers' historic 2013 began with the first volleyball match at the Bob Devaney Sports Center since its renovation. NU posted a 3-1 win over the Villanova Wildcats in front of 8,321 fans, while the Nebraska Athletic Department honored former head coach Terry Pettit prior to the match with a special court dedication ceremony.

Saint Mary's, Dayton and Iowa State all paid visits to the Devaney Center for the Ameritas Players Challenge. The Huskers took down the Saint Mary's Gaels in a 3-1 victory and defeated Dayton 3-0. A spirited and gutsy performance from the No. 12 Huskers helped NU top No. 17 Iowa State 3-0, in the first visit from a top-20 team to the new Devaney Center.

Nebraska turned its attention to the defending national champion and No. 6 Texas Longhorns on Sept. 22 at Gregory Gym on the campus of the University of Texas. In front of a 4,213 fans, the Huskers used a comeback effort to force their first five-set match of the season after being down 2-1 in the match. Texas came out on top, winning 3-2.

The Huskers opened the 2013 Big Ten slate on the road, earning a 3-1 victory over Northwestern and sweeping No. 24 Illinois at Huff Hall. The string of matches proved to be a successful opening weekend for the Big Red, as Nebraska came away with a 2-0 Big Ten record.

NU returned home for a tough weekend with No. 8 Minnesota and No. 23 Wisconsin. The 10th-ranked Huskers swept the Gophers in three sets on Friday night in front of 8,223 fans. Kelsey Robinson led Nebraska on the night with 21 kills on 40 swings for a .450 hitting percentage. Kadie Rolfzen tallied a double-double with 11 kills and a match-high 12 digs. The Badgers proved to be a pesky opponent the following night, battling the Huskers for five sets before Nebraska prevailed. Robinson once again produced a dominating performance to lead the Huskers, recording a career-high 29 kills on 56 swings for a .393 hitting clip. She also recorded a team-high 22 digs for her eighth double-double of the season. Robinson was named the AVCA/ Sports Imports National Player of the Week for her efforts over the weekend.

Nebraska traveled to Michigan for a showdown with the No. 17 Wolverines and the No. 7 Michigan State Spartans. The Huskers outlasted Michigan in five sets, but dropped their first conference match of the year to MSU, 3-1.

The No. 8 Huskers responded the following weekend with a 3-0 win over Indiana at the Devaney Center. The win gave John Cook his 400th victory at Nebraska. In another pivotal conference match, the Huskers hosted the Purdue Boilermakers the following day, but dropped a 3-1 decision, suffering their first conference defeat at the Devaney Center.

The loss sparked the Huskers as they won five straight matches, kicking off with a sweep of the Iowa Hawkeyes, followed by a 3-1 win over Ohio State in Columbus, Ohio. Nebraska returned home to face the Illinois Fighting Illini and produced a dominant blocking effort on the night, posting 16 total blocks. Nebraska swept Illinois 3-0 as Cecilia Hall led the Huskers with a career-high 11 blocks. The Huskers faced Northwestern the following Saturday and outlasted the Wildcats in five sets to earn their 10th conference win of the 2013 season.

Another tough pair of road matches greeted the Huskers as NU traveled to Madison, Wis., to face the Badgers. The Huskers fell to UW in the opening set, but came back to win three straight sets and secure the victory. Robinson produced another stellar night, as she recorded a double-double with 21 kills and 13 digs. She tallied 19 kills in the final three sets, including 10 in the third set alone. Kadie Rolfzen also notched a double-double on the night with a 19 kills and a match-high 17 digs. The Huskers then hit the road for Minneapolis and a match-up with the No. 9 Minnesota Gophers. NU handed Minnesota its first home loss of the 2013 season with a gritty 3-2 win at the Sports Pavilion as the Huskers and Gophers went to five sets for the third straight year in Minneapolis.

The Huskers returned home and posted a pair of wins over No. 16 Michigan State and No. 19 Michigan. Nebraska produced one of its best attacking performances of the year with a team hitting percentage of .402 in a 3-0 win over Michigan State. Kadie Rolfzen led the way with a .455 hitting clip and Robinson hit .428. The Huskers came back the following night to post a 3-1 win over Michigan and for the second time during the 2013 season, two Huskers posted 20 or more kills to lead NU in the victory. Robinson paved the way with a double-double as she recorded 21 kills, 12 digs. Kadie Rolfzen notched a double-double with a career-high-tying 20 kills and 10 digs.

The Huskers suffered a 3-0 defeat at Purdue the following weekend, but rebounded to sweep both Indiana and Iowa on Saturday, Nov. 23 and Wednesday, Nov. 27. The No. 10 Nebraska volleyball team fell in a 3-1 decision to the No. 2 Penn State Nittany Lions to close the regular season. In front of a season-high 8,561 fans, the Huskers honored seniors Robinson, Morgan Broekhuis and Hayley Thrasher in the regular-season finale.

Nebraska opened the postseason with a pair of sweeps over Fairfield and Oregon. The win over the Ducks punched NU's ticket to the NCAA Lincoln Regional the following weekend and advanced the Huskers to the Sweet 16 for the 30th time in 32 all-time trips to the postseason.

With two wins down and four to go, Nebraska hosted American, San Diego and Texas in NCAA Regional action. In the NCAA Regional Semifinal, the eighth-seeded Huskers handed the No. 9 seed San Diego Toreros a 3-0 defeat. The Huskers never trailed by more than three at any point in the match, but were constantly pushed by a Torero squad who entered the match with the nation's third-longest winning streak at 17 matches.

Nebraska's run for another national title ended on Saturday, Dec. 14. Top-ranked Texas advanced to the NCAA Semifinals in continued defense of its 2012 national title. In winning its school-record 10th consecutive postseason match, Texas handed the Huskers a home sweep for the first time ever in the NCAA Tournament. The Huskers were led by an outstanding performance from Robinson. In her final match, Robinson delivered a match-high 21 kills, while adding 12 digs to produce her 19th double-double of the season. Rolfzen added her 13th double-double with 12 kills and 12 digs.

The Huskers ended the year with a 26-7 overall record, a 16-7 record in conference play and a No. 7 national ranking in the final AVCA Coaches Poll. NU's nation-leading All-America total grew to 76, as Robinson led the charge with a first-team selection, while Kadie Rolfzen was named a third-team All-American. Junior Mary Pollmiller and sophomore Meghan Haggerty were chosen as honorable-mention selections.

On the conference level, Robinson became the first Husker to earn Big Ten Player-of-the-Year accolades, leading a Husker contingent of Kadie Rolfzen and Pollmiller to All-Big Ten honors. Robinson and Kadie Rolfzen earned All-Big Ten awards, while Pollmiller was selected as honorable mention. Rolfzen was also named to the All-Freshman Team as a unanimous pick. In addition, Broekhuis was selected as Nebraska's Sportsmanship Award honoree. Broekhuis also led NU academically as she was selection to the Capital One Academic All-District 7 volleyball team.

NU VOLLEYBALL: A CHAMPIONSHIP TRADITION

Nebraska's club volleyball program in the early 1970s set the foundation for the Huskers' early successes.

by Mike Babcock

A bulletin advertising an opening for the head volleyball coach's job at Nebraska had been discarded in a wastebasket in the coaches' office at Louisburg College. Paul Sanderford, the first-year head coach of the women's basketball team at the North Carolina junior college, retrieved the bulletin from the wastebasket and handed it to Terry Pettit, the school's head volleyball coach.

Without that assist from Sanderford, Pettit, an aspiring English teacher with a background in creative writing and poetry as well as coaching, would not have known about the opening. If he had not known about the opening, he would not have applied. And if he had not applied and been hired, the history of Husker volleyball would have been altered dramatically, because he and Husker volleyball became one and the same.

Pettit was the Nebraska volleyball coach from 1977 to 1999 – all but two years of the program's first 25 years of existence. Pat Sullivan, the Huskers' first volleyball coach, compiled an 83-21 record in two seasons of competition sanctioned by the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women.

Before 1975, Nebraska didn't sponsor women's athletic teams. If women wanted to compete, they did so on loosely organized and unfunded club teams. It had been that way since the early 1900s, when a women's basketball team occasionally competed against teams from outside the University.

Basketball was introduced in the university's physical education classes for sophomore women in 1896, and as was the case with male students, class teams competed against each other.

Nebraska's first All-University women's team was organized in 1896 and included the best players regardless of class, according to the Nebraska State Journal. The team never lost, which should not be surprising, given how it was chosen and the quality of its intramural competition.

The first women's basketball game played before an audience was part of the University's sixth annual gymnasium exhibition in the spring of 1897, according to Phyllis Kay Wilke's "Physical Education for Women at Nebraska University, 1879-1923," published in Nebraska History in the spring of 1975.

Louise Pound seems to have been the driving force in women's basketball at Nebraska, organizing as well as playing on the earliest teams. She was captain of the first team to play against an opponent from outside the University in March of 1898. Pound, who also was the first

All-University tennis champion, scored 11 points in a 15-7 victory against a team from Council Bluffs, Iowa.

In April of 1901, the university sponsored a women's state tournament under Pound's direction at Grant Memorial Hall. Nebraska was represented by an A team and a B team in a field that included teams from the Omaha YWCA, Lincoln High School and Wahoo High School. Nebraska's A team won the two-day competition and a month later won a rematch with the Omaha YWCA in Omaha.

In November of 1901, Nebraska played a team from the University of Missouri at Grant Hall, "the first intercollegiate match for girls ever played in the west," according to the Nebraska State Journal. Missouri was no match for its more experienced — and to that point undefeated — opponent, losing 31-4.

The Nebraska women did not suffer their first defeat until 1904, when they lost to a team from the University of Minnesota at Minneapolis after opening an abbreviated schedule by shutting out a team from the Lincoln YWCA. The Nebraska women avenged the Minnesota loss two weeks later in Lincoln.

The Nebraska women played games against the University of Minnesota, home-and-home two weeks apart, again in March of 1908, losing both, the second after a five-minute overtime.

Before the Minnesota games, Nebraska had defeated Nebraska Wesleyan to finish what was to be its final season with a 1-2 record against outside competition. University women were not allowed to compete in basketball, as well as other sports, only in physical education classes after April 24, 1908.

In response to the concerns of faculty members, who considered such activity inappropriate, the University board of regents abolished intercollegiate athletics for women. If not for the passing of Title IX by Congress in 1972, there probably would not be women's intercollegiate athletics now.

Initially, "there wasn't an embracing of women's athletics," Pettit said. "It's like any civil rights movement almost. It's tolerated, and you have to educate the public as to what it means. Today if you asked on a ballot if women should have the opportunity to compete in sports, there would be an overwhelming majority of people who would support it. But that wasn't the case in the 1970s."

"One of the things that allowed Nebraska to be successful was that we jumped in with both feet," Pettit said. "Nebraska decided: 'Well, if we're going to do this, let's do it well.' Whereas some schools were hesitant to get going, Nebraska was one of the first to offer scholarships. In any endeavor, if you're among the first, that gives you a tremendous advantage, and you continue to reap the benefits years later."

Under Pettit's direction, volleyball became to Husker women's athletics what football is to the Nebraska men's program. Pettit's teams advanced to the NCAA Tournament semifinals six times, and his 1995 team won the national championship, defeating Texas in the finals at Amherst, Mass.

The 1995 Huskers finished 32-1, with their only loss coming against Stanford in the second match of the season. Senior Allison Weston was the AVCA Co-Player of the Year and among three first-team All-Americans from Nebraska. The others were Christy Johnson and Lisa Reitsma.

Weston, a middle blocker, earned first-team All-America honors three times, the first Husker to do so. But Nebraska consistently has been represented on All-America teams since 1980, when Terri Kanouse became the Huskers' first volleyball All-American, as selected by the AIAW.

Three Huskers have earned All-America honors from the American Volleyball Coaches Association in the same

The first Husker volleyball team, coached by Pat Sullivan (far right, back row), set the tone for future teams, compiling a 34-8 record and advancing to the AIAW regional finals in 1975.

Two-time All-American Christy Johnson led the Huskers to their first NCAA title in 1995.

season 16 times since 1984, most recently in 2013, when Kelsey Robinson and Kadie Rolfsen captured All-America honors.

After the 1999 season, Pettit turned the program over to his long-time friend and former NU assistant coach, John Cook.

Cook arrived at Nebraska with impressive credentials after building the Wisconsin volleyball program into a national power, and he wasted no time making his mark at NU. In what was supposed to be a transition year, Cook led the Huskers to a perfect 34-0 record and the 2000 NCAA title.

The following season, Cook again guided the Huskers to the NCAA semifinals, where they lost to eventual national champion Stanford. After two regional finals and a regional semifinal, the Huskers returned to the national title match in 2005 and won the school's third NCAA title in 2006, defeating Stanford, 3-1, in front of a then-NCAA record crowd of 17,209 at the Qwest Center.

In 14 years, Cook has guided Nebraska to a 413-48 record, a pair of national titles, five NCAA semifinal appearances, nine Big 12 championships and one Big Ten title. During the Big 12 era, Cook's teams were an amazing 207-13.

The tradition that Cook continues to build began in 1978, when Kanouse and Shandi Pettine were the first Nebraska volleyball players to be recruited with full scholarships. By 1981, Pettit could award 12 scholarships.

"We had a full complement," he said. "And that put us ahead of some schools."

Those first Nebraska teams included primarily in-state athletes. But Kanouse was from Indiana and Pettine was from Colorado, evidence not only of Pettit's interest in expanding the Huskers' recruiting base, but also of the respect his program was earning beyond the state's borders.

Fiona Nepo, one of only 12 setters in NCAA history to earn All-America certificates three times came from Honolulu, Hawaii.

Karen Dahlgren, an All-American in 1985 and 1986, and Lynae Loseke, whose career was cut short by a knee injury, walked on, another element of the volleyball program's consistent success shared by the football program.

"We don't have 50 walk-ons, but if we can get one good one a year, it pays off," Pettit said.

The 1981 and 1982 recruits, which included Cathy Noth (from Iowa) and Mary Buysse (from Minnesota), gave the Huskers "two really good classes in a row," Pettit said. And, except for Dahlgren, who redshirted, they helped get Nebraska into the NCAA Tournament for the first time.

NU had qualified for the AIAW National Tournament in 1978 at Tuscaloosa, Ala., but "there was no excitement because nobody here got to see the matches," Pettit said.

Terry Pettit, pictured with Kim Behrends, led NU to six NCAA semifinals and the 1995 national title. The Devaney Center court was named in honor of Coach Pettit after a generous gift from Bill and Ruth Scott.

That changed in 1982, when Nebraska defeated a Penn State team coached by Russ Rose (Pettit's assistant in 1978 and 1979) in the NCAA Tournament's first round before a large and enthusiastic crowd at the NU Coliseum.

"That was a dramatic step for the program," Pettit said. "It was the first time we really had an opportunity to market something. I don't think anything changes the perception of an athletic program like hosting an NCAA event. From then on, we were always playing, always hosting."

The Huskers have qualified for 32 consecutive NCAA Tournaments, which "may be our biggest achievement is the consistency. We're always very competitive," Pettit said.

Nebraska reached the NCAA finals for the first time in 1986, Dahlgren's senior season, defeating Stanford in the semifinals but losing to Pacific on its home court in Stockton, Calif.

Three seasons later, the persistent Huskers were back in the NCAA title match, losing to Long Beach State (after defeating top-ranked UCLA) at Honolulu, Hawaii. Pettit realized then that his program had progressed to a point where winning the national championship was a realistic goal.

Several other factors contributed to the success of the Nebraska volleyball program, including the Coliseum, which was refurbished and reconfigured specifically as a volleyball facility in 1992.

The intimacy of the Coliseum was a significant factor in growing fan support, which has kept Nebraska among the nation's leaders in attendance, annually ranking in the top three nationally, including second in 2012. Nebraska sold out its last 181 straight matches at the 4,030-seat Coliseum, dating back to 2001.

The Huskers moved into the newly-renovated Bob Devaney Sports Center for the 2013 season. Nebraska sold out nearly 8,000 season tickets in the reconfigured Devaney Center for its inaugural season and led the nation in attendance in 2013 with an average of 8,175 fans per match, while stretching its home sellout streak to 200 matches. Nebraska set an NCAA regular-season attendance record on Sept. 11, 2009, as a sellout crowd of 13,870 watched the Huskers take on UCLA.

Nebraska's fans have consistently shattered volleyball attendance records. In 2008, Nebraska drew an NCAA record crowd of 17,430 for the NCAA semifinals at the Qwest Center. The four largest crowds at the NCAA Women's Volleyball Championship have been set in Omaha.

Fans also know what to expect from the Husker teams that play there.

"They know what type of effort they're going to see," Pettit said. "The fans are only 10 or 15 feet removed from the playing court, so they can tell whether or not there's enthusiasm, whether or not people (the athletes) are communicating. That's what they really come to see. It certainly helps that Nebraska wins. The winning gets you there the first time. But you can't have a great enterprise, whether it be a business or an athletic team, unless you have an identity."

"People have that feeling about Nebraska volleyball. They know exactly what it is. They know what type of athlete is on the court. They know the style of play. They know the effort. They know the consistency. They know that she's a good student. And they know that she's a solid citizen when she goes on to her career after volleyball."

The attraction wasn't immediate. Though the program has been successful from the beginning, it experienced some lean times as far as interest and support.

"It's been a slow, consistent growth," Pettit said. "I think that fits Nebraskans. They aren't real impressed with flash or something that just happens in the short term. What they want to see is progress over the long run. 'Show me that you'll continue to get the job done.' If you do that, then they'll ride with you even when things aren't so good."

The Huskers celebrate match point against Wisconsin to win the 2000 NCAA title. Nebraska went 34-0 to earn its second national title.

A Magical Season

Nebraska enjoyed a storybook season in 2006, putting together a 33-1 record en route to the school's third national title. Despite the loss of AVCA National Player of the Year Christina Houghtelling before the start of preseason practice and a lineup that featured three new starters, the Huskers won their first 23 matches, including 18 sweeps, before suffering their only loss of the year. The Huskers rebounded by losing just one game over the next seven matches before running into their toughest test of the postseason. One game away from the national semifinals in Omaha, the Huskers overcame a 2-0 deficit to topple Minnesota and win a regional for the first time outside the state in school history. That win set the stage for one of the biggest volleyball events in history, as the Huskers played for a chance at a national title in front of sold-out crowds of 17,000-plus at the Qwest Center in Omaha.

Semifinals

Nebraska used a career night from Tracy Stalls to advance to the finals with a 3-1 victory over fourth-ranked UCLA. Stalls totaled a career-high 17 kills on .577 hitting, out-shining UCLA All-American Nana Meriwether, who was held to 12 kills and a season-low .190 hitting. The Huskers dropped the opener and trailed 28-26 before a Pavan kill pulled NU within a point. Stalls then closed out the game with three straight points from the service line, tying the match at one. Nebraska took control of the third game behind the strong serving of Pavan, who ran off nine straight points at the service line including three aces that turned a 13-all game into a 23-13 cushion. Stalls had seven kills in each of the final two games. While Pavan finished with a match-high 22 kills, the Husker defense held UCLA in check behind 29 digs from Dani Busboom and 25 from Jordan Larson, as both enjoyed career bests in digs against the Bruins.

Final

The Huskers followed a similar script as the semifinals, dropping the opening game before regrouping. Trailing 24-23 in game two, the Huskers seized the momentum with three straight points, highlighted by a Dani Mancuso kill that gave NU a 25-24 lead. In game three, another unlikely hero emerged to spark a Husker comeback. Trailing 23-19, Amanda Gates came off the bench and sparked NU with two big blocks, the second of which put the Huskers up 29-28. In the finale, the Huskers rode the arm of Sarah Pavan, who had six of her match-high 22 kills, before Jordan

Larson's 19th kill of the night closed out the match after the Cardinal pulled within 29-27. NU had four players total at least 10 kills, as Mancuso finished a dream season with 12 kills in her hometown.

Highlighting the 2006 Season

- The Huskers led the country in both kills (17.40) and assists (16.20) per game, the first time Nebraska had led the country in either category.
- Nebraska set school records for kills per game, assists per game and block assists (823).
- Nebraska became the third team in NCAA history to lead the AVCA poll the entire season, joining UCLA (1992) and USC (2003), and the first team to win a national title while hosting since UCLA in 1991.
- Sarah Pavan became the first Husker athlete to win the Honda-Broderick Cup - symbolic of the top female athlete in college athletics. Pavan also became the first Big 12 student-athlete to win the award since the league's inception in 1996.

Quoting Coach John Cook

"This team maxed out to their abilities. They really never wavered the entire year, and they embraced it if they did. To win this here in Nebraska, with this group of people and overcoming the obstacles to get here and dealing with this pressure, it has to be No. 1."

— Cook following the national title match

Middle blocker Tracy Stalls had a career-high 17 kills on .577 hitting and four blocks in NU's NCAA semifinal win over UCLA.

Nebraska shattered NCAA single-match and all-session records at the 2006 NCAA Championships in Omaha, drawing 34,222 for the two matches, including a then-NCAA record crowd of 17,209 for the title match against Stanford. At the time, that was the largest crowd to ever see a volleyball match in the United States.

Jordan Larson slams home match point, giving the Huskers their third NCAA title. Larson finished the NCAA title match against the Cardinal with 19 kills on .378 hitting and 15 digs.

Mission Accomplished

Nebraska entered the 2000 season with a No. 11 preseason ranking and an eagerness to prove the pollsters wrong. Competing with a new coach, a new setter and without two-time All-American Nancy Metcalf (Meendering) didn't scare the Huskers. A trio of sophomore All-Americans, including AVCA Player-of-the-Year Greichaly Cepero, emerged to lead NU to a 34-0 record and the program's second national title. With a 3-2 win over Wisconsin Dec. 15 in the championship final, the Huskers became just the second team in NCAA history to finish a season undefeated. First-year Head Coach John Cook earned AVCA Coach-of-the-Year honors.

Semifinals

In the first match, Nebraska relied on its greatest strength - its block - to stifle Hawaii at the net in a 3-1 victory. The Huskers out-blocked the Rainbow Wahine 23-7.5, as Jenny Kropp and Amber Holmquist each tallied 10 block assists. With the win, the Huskers broke the school record for consecutive victories in the modern era of five-game matches. NU produced 36 victories in 1976 when all matches were played as two-out-of-three contests.

Final

After falling behind 2-1 to Wisconsin, Nebraska breezed to a 15-2 win in the fourth game to force a rally-scoring fifth game for the national title. With senior Kim Behrends at the service line, Laura Pilakowski slammed her 23rd kill of the match to secure the championship. Pilakowski was joined on the NCAA All-Tournament team by classmates Greichaly Cepero and Amber Holmquist. Cepero added 52 assists, eight digs, eight kills and seven blocks, while Holmquist added 16 kills on a .387 hitting efficiency with five blocks.

Highlighting the 2000 Season

- Nebraska claimed its 23rd Big Eight/Big 12 championship in 25 seasons. With a 20-0 run through the league, the Huskers improved their all-time mark against Big 12 schools to 375-32-1, an amazing .920 winning percentage.
- Nebraska, ranked No. 1 in the AVCA/USA Today Coaches poll for 14 straight weeks, swept 26 of its 34 opponents and 17 of its 20 conference opponents, losing just five games in Big 12 play. Only three teams took NU to five games.
- Amber Holmquist shattered three Nebraska single-season blocking records, setting new marks with 199 block assists, 220 total blocks and 1.98 blocks per game. Holmquist also broke the Big 12 record for total blocks in a single game with 16 at Texas on Oct. 22.
- Nebraska bettered its own then-NCAA record for single-match home attendance, as 12,504 fans cheered the Huskers to a 3-0 win over Colorado, Nov. 4, at the Bob Devaney Sports Center.

Quoting Coach John Cook

"If there are 10 teams better than us, I think it's going to be a heck of a year in college volleyball, because believe me, we're going to be pretty good."
- Cook before the 2000 season

The Huskers celebrated with the championship trophy following their win over Wisconsin in the 2000 NCAA Championship match.

Laura Pilakowski had a match-high 23 kills and a team-best 15 digs in the five-set win over Wisconsin in the NCAA Championship match.

1995 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

One Goal - One Team - One Champion

Nebraska entered the season with one goal in mind, win the national championship. Led by a talented trio of seniors, the Huskers capped their championship run by hammering Texas 3-1 in the title match. After three previous trips to the NCAA Championships, the Huskers' incredible drive and focus fueled them to their first national title.

Semifinals

In the first match, Nebraska countered a 15-10 loss in game one, by winning the second and third games, 15-8. Michigan State responded to NU's challenge, winning the fourth game, 15-9. In the fifth and decisive game, with the score deadlocked at 7-7, NU scored four consecutive points, forging to an 11-7 lead. The Spartans added one more point, but the Huskers prevailed, 15-8. Allison Weston led the Husker charge, recording a team-high 30 kills.

Final

In the finals, Texas jumped to an early 12-4 lead in game one, but the Huskers rallied to make it close, losing 15-10. Although they lost the first game, the Huskers gained momentum, playing solidly at the end of the game. NU cruised to wins in games two and three, thumping the Longhorns, 15-2 and 15-7. Game four swayed back and forth, but the Huskers persevered, sealing NU's first national title with a 16-14 victory. Billie Winsett and Kate Crnich led the way, posting 25 kills each. Crnich's 25 kills were a career high, hitting .500 for the match.

Outside hitter Kate Crnich had a career-high 25 kills on .500 hitting in the NCAA title match against Texas.

Highlighting the 1995 Season

- After losing its second match of the season to then-No. 1 Stanford, NU reeled off 31 consecutive wins to claim the NCAA title. An amazing 28 of Nebraska's 32 victories were 3-0 wins.
- Not only did Nebraska claim its first-ever national championship, the Huskers posted school records for wins and winning percentage that would stand until the 2000 season. Nebraska finished with a 32-1 (.970) record, bettering the .969 percentage it posted in 1994 (31-1). NU also matched the then-school record for wins, equalling the 1990 squad's record total of 32.
- Allison Weston shattered Eileen Shannon's Husker school record for career kills (1,521), finishing her career with 1,778.
- Nebraska bettered its own NCAA record for single-match home attendance, as 11,529 cheered the Huskers to a 3-0 win over Colorado, Oct. 21, at the Devaney Center. NU set the previous record of 11,032, Sept. 14, 1991, also at the Devaney Center. The mark would stand until the 2000 season.

Quoting Coach Terry Pettit

"We certainly should be strong. We have great senior leadership in Allison Weston, Billie Winsett and Christy Johnson. We were 31-1 last season (1994), and I think we're going to be better this year."

— Pettit before the 1995 season

NU Reaches NCAA Semifinals

The Huskers inspired the state, reaching the NCAA semifinals for the third time in four years. Led by Big 12 Player of the Year Jordan Larson, NU went 31-3 and won a share of the Big 12 title. John Cook was the Big 12 Coach of the Year. After dropping the first two sets to Penn State, the Huskers thrilled an NCAA-record crowd of 17,430 by winning the next two sets to even the match, marking the only time that Penn State lost a set all year. NU led 10-8 in the fifth set, but six unanswered points ended the Huskers' NCAA title bid.

NCAA Regional

After opening regional action with a sweep of Michigan, the Huskers faced Washington for the first time since the 2005 NCAA title match. The Huskers won the first two sets before Nebraska fought back to win the next two sets. The Huskers trailed 9-3 before running off nine straight points, including eight off the serving of Kayla Banwarth, to take a three-point lead. Washington pulled even at 13 apiece, but a Husky hitting error and a service ace from Larson completed the comeback. Tara Mueller led the way with a career-high 24 kills and 16 digs, while Larson matched her career best with 21 kills and added 18 digs.

2008 Season Highlights

- Nebraska tied the NCAA record for most consecutive home wins with 87, matching the mark Penn State set between 1995 and 2000.
- The Huskers won 30 matches for the 20th time in program history and fifth consecutive year.
- Jordan Larson set Nebraska's school career mark with 186 career aces, breaking the mark of 161 set by Val Novak.

2005 Big 12 Champion Huskers - (Back row from left): Head Assistant Coach Lee Maes, Assistant Coach Charlene Johnson-Tagaloo, Jordan Larson, Melissa Elmer, Tracy Stalls, Sarah Pavan, Christina Houghtelling, Dani Mancuso, Amanda Gates, Director of Volleyball Operations Tina Westerhold, Volunteer Assistant Coach Christie Landry and Head Coach John Cook. Huskers Play for NCAA Title

The 2005 season proved to be one of the most memorable in school history. The Huskers went 33-2, falling one victory shy of a third NCAA title. Behind All-Americans Christina Houghtelling, Melissa Elmer, Sarah Pavan and Jennifer Saleaumua, the Huskers won their first 28 matches and earned their second straight Big 12 title. Nebraska rolled into the national semifinals in San Antonio, sweeping UCLA and fourth-ranked Florida in front of then-NCAA-record crowds in Omaha.

Semifinals and Finals

Melissa Elmer totaled 13 kills on .647

hitting to lead NU to a 3-0 sweep of Santa Clara in the national semifinals. NU hit .449 on the evening and out-blocked Santa Clara, 15-2. Elmer's 13 kills led three Huskers in double figures, while Sarah Pavan and Christina Houghtelling added 11 and 10 kills, respectively.

Nebraska's magical season came to an end with a 3-0 loss to Washington in the national title match. All-Americans Sarah Pavan and Jennifer Saleaumua paced NU's effort, as Pavan totaled a match-high 16 kills on .429 hitting, while Saleaumua closed out a sterling career with 12 kills on .545 hitting and nine digs. The Huskers were out-hit for the only time all season,

.237-.185, as the Huskers won their first national title behind 15 kills from tournament MVP Christal Morrison.

2005 Season Highlights

- Nebraska became the first host team to win the AVCA Classic, defeating No. 4 Hawaii and No. 3 Stanford.
- The Huskers led the nation in blocking for the fifth time in six years, averaging 4.12 blocks per game.
- Melissa Elmer repeated as the national leader in blocks with 2.17 blocks per game and became the Big 12 all-time leader in that category with 767 blocks.

NU Reaches NCAA Semifinals

Nebraska fell two wins shy in its bid to repeat as national champions, as U.S. National Team member Logan Tom pounded 22 kills to lead Stanford to a 3-0 win over NU in the NCAA semifinals. The loss capped an otherwise successful season for the Huskers, who were 31-2 overall and 20-0 in the Big 12 Conference, dropping just three games in conference play. NU Coach John Cook was named Big 12 Coach of the Year, and Nancy Metcalf (Meendering) was named the Big 12 Player of the Year.

NCAA Regional

The Huskers' eighth semifinal bid did not come easy. After breezing to wins in games one and two, Nebraska dropped the next two games to Florida to tie the match. NU, which had not played a five-game match all year, trailed 12-10 when Nancy Metcalf responded with back-to-back kills to even the score. After a Florida service error, Metcalf pounded another kill to bring Nebraska within a point of the win. All-American Aury Cruz held NU off with a kill, but Metcalf answered on the next rally with her 25th kill of the match.

2001 Season Highlights

- Nebraska earned its eighth NCAA semifinal bid and made its 20th consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance.
- The Huskers won 30 matches for the 12th time in program history.
- Nebraska broke the school record for opponent attack percentage, holding teams to a .106 combined mark to break the previous record of .109 set in 1995.

NU Reaches NCAA Semis for Third Time in Four Seasons

Nebraska's senior-laden team of Fiona Nepo, Megan Korver and Jaime Krondak guided the Huskers to one of the best seasons in NU history. The Huskers went 32-2 and reached the NCAA semifinals in Madison, Wis.

Nebraska's victory over Wisconsin in the regional championship in Lincoln was a memorable one, as the longest match in school history spanned nearly three hours. NU avoided a two-game deficit by withstanding 14 game points to win game two, 18-16. Wisconsin won game three, 15-9, but Nebraska came right back to claim game four, 15-10. In the rally-scoring fifth game, NU recovered from a 9-7 hole to blitz to a 15-10 win. Nancy Metcalf (Meendering) was named the tournament MVP after posting 27 kills.

NCAA Semifinals

The match between the Huskers (32-1) and the Penn State Nittany Lions (34-0) featured three AVCA All-Americans on each side of the net and the top offense (PSU) and top blocking attack (NU) in the country. The third-ranked Huskers rallied from a two-game deficit by winning game three and led midway through game four, 6-2. But Lauren Cacciamani recorded seven kills in nine swings to lead Penn State to the victory. NU finished with 20 blocks.

1998 Season Highlights

- The Huskers went 18-0 at home to extend their NU Coliseum win streak to 65 matches.
- Nebraska also led the nation with 3.93 blocks per game.
- Three-time All-American Fiona Nepo shattered Nikki Stricker's career assist record by becoming Nebraska's all-time assist leader.

Near Repeat

Despite the loss of three standout seniors who guided Nebraska to its first national title in 1995, and injuries to three key players, the Huskers nearly became the first team to repeat as NCAA champions since UCLA turned the trick in 1990 and 1991. NU fell only two matches shy of back-to-back national championships, dropping a hard-fought decision to eventual champion Stanford in the national semifinals.

NCAA Semifinals

The 30-3 Huskers faced top-seeded Stanford (29-2), which featured four AVCA All-Americans. Nebraska won the first game, 15-9, but the Cardinal amassed large leads in each of the next three games, securing a 3-1 win. Two days later, the Cardinal swept Hawaii for the national title. Lisa Reitsma led the Huskers with a match-high 22 kills. Kate Crnich smacked 16 kills and added a match-high 15 digs.

1996 Season Highlights

- NU opened the year by recording its then-school record 32nd-straight victory, a 3-1 triumph over Illinois State in the State Farm/NACWAA Classic.

- Nebraska claimed the first-ever Big 12 championship with a 19-1 league mark.

- Lisa Reitsma shattered Kathi DeBoer's single-season kill total (529 in 1987) with 611. In addition, Reitsma's 5.05 kills per game bettered Allison Weston's mark of 4.99 kills per game set in 1994.

- Fiona Nepo posted a school-record 1,653 set assists, eclipsing the 1989 standard of 1,608 set by Val Novak.

For the second consecutive year, Nebraska returned to the NCAA Championships, only to be ousted one match short of the finals. Once again, as it did in 1986, Pacific sent the Huskers home with a 3-1 loss. It was the Tigers' second victory of the season against Nebraska, as the Tigers defeated the Huskers 3-1 in an early season tournament.

NCAA Semifinals

A close match throughout, Nebraska and Pacific's intense game one set the tone. Nebraska led 13-11, but saw the Tigers score four unanswered points and claim the crucial first game. The Huskers rebounded for a 15-11 win in game two, scoring the game's final three points. Games three and four were equally competitive, but the Tigers had the stamina to thwart Nebraska's attack, winning 15-9 and 15-12. Cris Hall led NU with 18 kills, while Val Novak had 46 assists and a match-high 17 digs. Krissy Fifer led the Pacific attack with 21 kills.

1990 Season Highlights

- In terms of winning percentage, Nebraska finished with its then-best season ever at 32-3 (.914). Before losing to Pacific in the semifinals, Nebraska had won 16 straight contests.

- Nebraska set team records in block assists (558) and opponent hitting percentage (.135).

- Nebraska won its 15th consecutive Big Eight title with a perfect 12-0 record and the tournament crown with a win over Colorado.

- The 1990 season was the last at the Nebraska Coliseum until it reopened for volleyball in 1992. In 1990 the Huskers were a perfect 18-0 and drew an average of 2,816 fans per match.

A Second Time

After a two-year hiatus, Nebraska seniors Virginia Stahr and Carla Baker led NU to its second appearance at the NCAA Championships. In 1986, the Huskers had advanced to the championship match before losing to Pacific. In 1989, NU was hoping for better luck in Honolulu, Hawaii. But fate was not on Nebraska's side. The Husker hitters made quick work of UCLA, before losing, 3-0, to Long Beach State.

NCAA Championships

A balanced Husker attack and solid defensive play propelled Nebraska past a UCLA team that had lost just two matches all season. Cris Hall led NU with 19 kills, while Janet Kruse had 12, Eileen Shannon had 11 and Virginia Stahr added 10. NU out-hit UCLA .265 to .160.

Unfortunately, Nebraska's second championship match was much like its first in 1986. Nebraska battled hard in the first game, only to lose 15-12. From that point on, the Huskers could not regain their winning ways, as Long Beach State cruised, 15-0, 15-6 to win the match. Shannon led Nebraska with 11 kills, and Hall added 10.

1989 Season Highlights

- Virginia Stahr captured several awards in 1989 including Delta Scholar Athlete of the Year, Woody Hayes Female Athlete of the Year, Big Eight Female Athlete of the Year and the NCAA Today's Top Six Award.
- Nebraska set team records in 1989 with 2,031 kills, 1,803 assists and a 17.07 kills per game average.
- Nebraska won its 14th consecutive Big Eight title with a perfect 12-0 record.
- The Huskers started the year with a season-high 14-match winning streak.

Breakthrough Season

After losing in the Mideast Regional final the previous two seasons, Nebraska broke through the field in 1986 and made its first-ever trip to the NCAA championship. Led by senior All-Americans Karen Dahlgren, Tisha Delaney and Enid Schonewise, the Big Eight champion Huskers traveled to Stockton, Calif., with an impressive 28-5 record. The Huskers defeated Stanford, 3-1, before falling to Pacific, 3-0.

NCAA Championships

In the semifinals, Schonewise led the Husker attack with 15 kills, while Angie Millikin had 11 kills and a match-high 18 digs. Nebraska hit .258 for the match and held the Cardinal to just .089 hitting.

In the championship match, Nebraska met a Pacific team that had lost just one game during the entire NCAA Tournament. The Huskers hung tough in game one, coming back from a 14-9 deficit to cut the margin to two at 14-12. But the Tigers were too much, as they converted their third game point for the 15-12 win. The first game took too much out of the Huskers, as they fell in games two and three by scores of 15-4, 15-4.

1986 Season Highlights

- Nebraska set four single-season team records, including most kills, attacks, hitting percentage and digs. Schonewise set individual season records for kills, kills per game and attacks.
- The Huskers set an NCAA record with a .331 hitting percentage, a mark that still ranks in the top 15 all time.
- Nebraska won its 11th straight Big Eight championship in 1986 with a 10-0 record and defeated Oklahoma, 3-0, for the tournament trophy in Salina, Kan.

- The Huskers placed a school-record five players on the AVCA All-America teams in 2007 and placed four players on the AVCA All-America teams in 2001, 2005 and 2006.

HUSKER AVCA ALL-AMERICANS

Kadie Rolfzen, 2013

Outside Hitter, Papillion, Neb.

Kadie Rolfzen was named a third-team AVCA All-American as a freshman after a stellar inaugural campaign with the Huskers. She earned All-Big Ten honors in 2013 and was also a unanimous All-Freshman team pick, while earning AVCA North Region Freshman-of-the-Year accolades and first-team honors. Rolfzen finished her freshman year with 377 kills to rank second on the NU freshman kills list. She was named the Big Ten Freshman of the Week twice in 2013 and posted 10 or more kills 23 times, including a stretch of 13 consecutive matches.

Kelsey Robinson 2013

Outside Hitter, Bartlett, Ill.

Kelsey Robinson produced one of the most impressive senior seasons as a Husker, earning first-team AVCA All-America honors. She was also named the Big Ten Player of the Year and earned unanimous All-Big Ten honors. Robinson was one of four nominees for the Honda Sports Award for Volleyball and a semifinalist for the AAU Sullivan Award. She totaled 530 kills on the season and averaged 4.45 kills per set, hitting at a clip of .318 for the year and also tallying 396 digs. She led the Big Ten in kills (4.69) and points (5.41) per set during the conference season. Robinson also ended the season ranked ninth in hitting percentage, second in kills and fifth in aces in the Big Ten. She posted 19 double-doubles on the year and was named the Big Ten Player of the Week four times in 2013.

Lauren Cook, 2012

Setter, Lincoln, Neb.

Lauren Cook was one of the nation's elite setters in her senior season, ranking among the top players in the country with 11.15 assists per set (1,372 total). She helped the Huskers finish second in the Big Ten in total assists (1,617) and hitting percentage (.292). She added another 28 service aces and 338 digs in the 2012 campaign and totaled 50 or more assists six times as a senior, including a season-high 56 against UCLA on Aug. 25. Cook recorded a team-best 17 double-doubles (assists-digs) on the year and helped Nebraska hit .300 or better in 18 out of 33 matches in 2012. She also won AVCA National Freshman-of-the-Year honors in 2009.

Gina Mancuso, 2011, 2012

Outside Hitter, Omaha, Neb.

Gina Mancuso was named a first-team AVCA All-American in 2011. Also selected as a unanimous first-team All-Big Ten pick, she led the Huskers with 407 kills for an average of 3.60 kills per set. Mancuso added 2.66 digs per set. Her efficiency kept her ranked in the top 10 in the conference for total kills during the entire season. She notched at least 10 kills in 25 regular-season matches during 2011 and posted a career-high 24 kills against Colorado State. She was a second-team AVCA All-America selection, Nebraska's first Senior CLASS Award winner and a first-team CoSIDA Academic All-American in 2012, as she led the Huskers in kills per set, kills and totaled 11 double-doubles on the year.

Hannah Werth, 2010, 2012

Outside Hitter, Springfield, Ill.

Hannah Werth was named a second-team AVCA All-American in 2012 and 2010 after earning honorable-mention accolades as a freshman in 2009. She added an honorable-mention award in 2011. Also selected as the 2010 Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year, Werth ranked second for the 2010 Huskers in both kills (2.80) and digs (3.09) per set, while she was third in solo blocks with 11. The Springfield, Ill., native led the Huskers with 10 double-doubles in 2010, including a 16-kill, 16-dig performance against Washington in the NCAA Tournament to notch the 21st double-double of her career. She earned second-team honors in 2012 after recording 360 total kills as a senior and an average of 3.05 kills per set and a team-high 390 digs. She tallied 14 double-doubles on the year. Werth finished her career with 1,286 kills and 1,367 digs, joining three other Huskers as the only players to record 1,000 career digs and kills.

Lindsey Licht, 2010

Right Side, Aurora, Colo.

Lindsey Licht was a go-to player at right side for the Huskers in 2010, as she led the team with 2.81 kills per set while hitting a career-best .295. A first-team All-Big 12 pick, she led the Huskers in kills 10 times and tied for the team lead on another three occasions. The Aurora, Colo., native topped her single-match best in kills with 18 against Florida and tied her career best in blocks twice with eight apiece against both Oklahoma and Texas A&M. Licht and teammate Hannah Werth continued the success of Husker attackers in the Big 12 era in 2010. During Nebraska's 15 seasons in the conference, the Huskers' right side and outside hitters earned 22 All-America certificates.

Brooke Delano, 2009, 2010

Middle Blocker, Bellevue, Neb.

After earning her first AVCA All-America honor in 2009, Brooke Delano was a first-team selection in 2010. Delano led the 2010 squad in hitting percentage (.406) and blocks per set (1.42), ranking her in the top 10 nationally in both categories. A unanimous All-Big 12 pick, Delano became just the fourth Husker in school history to hit .400 or better in a season, as she joined fellow All-Americans Tracy Stalls (.473), Virginia Stahr (.440) and Amber Holmquist (.406). The Bellevue, Neb., native set single-match career bests in nearly every category in 2010, including kills (15), hitting percentage (.875), assists (3), aces (3), block assists (9) and total blocks (10). Her .875 hitting performance (14-0-16) on the road against Missouri ranked as the fourth-best performance all-time at Nebraska, as it bettered her .833 night against the Tigers in 2009.

Sydney Anderson, 2008, 2009

Setter, Salt Lake City, Utah

Sydney Anderson was the eighth Husker setter to be a multi-time All-American, earning second-team honors in 2008 and third-team accolades in 2009. She led Nebraska to a 26-7 record and a berth in the regional finals in 2009, while averaging 11.53 assists, 0.77 kills and 2.45 digs per set. She ranked 13th nationally in assists while running an offense that ranked in the top 10 nationally in both kills and assists per game. She owned a team-high 14 double-doubles and helped the Huskers hit .300 or better in 13 matches. She collected her first All-America award in 2008, as she averaged 11.60 assists, 2.05 digs, 0.82 kills and 0.29 service aces per set to lead Nebraska into the NCAA semifinals. She was eighth nationally in assists and totaled eight double-doubles. The 2008 Big 12 Newcomer of the Year, Anderson also was a first-team All-Big 12 performer and a five-time Big 12 Rookie of the Week as a sophomore.

Tara Mueller, 2008

Outside Hitter, Scottsdale, Ariz.

One of three AVCA All-Americans in 2008, Tara Mueller earned second-team honors in helping the Huskers to a 31-3 record and a berth in the 2008 NCAA semifinals. She was the Most Outstanding Player of the Seattle Regional, totaling a career-high 24 kills and 16 digs in the regional final against Washington. A first-team All-Big 12 performer, Mueller averaged 3.51 kills and 2.37 digs per set, ranking among conference leaders in both categories.

Jordan Larson, 2006, 2007, 2008

Outside Hitter, Hooper, Neb.

Jordan Larson was one of the nation's top outside hitters, earning All-America honors in three consecutive years (2006-08). She is one of only four Huskers to record more than 1,000 kills and digs in a career and finished her career with 1,600 kills, 1,410 digs and a school-record 186 service aces. She captured Big 12 Player and Defensive Player of the Year in 2008, averaging 3.92 kills and 3.19 digs per set to help NU to an NCAA semifinal appearance. She collected third-team All-America honors in 2007, averaging 3.45 kills, 3.18 digs and a Big 12-best 0.51 service aces per set. As a sophomore, she averaged 4.13 kills and 3.50 digs per set and was the only Big 12 player to rank in the league's top 10 in both kills and digs. She joined the U.S. National Team on a full-time basis in January of 2009 and competed in the 2012 London Olympics.

Sarah Pavan, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2007

Right Side/Opposite, Kitchener, Ontario

One of only five players in NCAA history to be named a four-time AVCA first-team All-American, Sarah Pavan was one of the most dominant players in Big 12 history. She finished her career holding school records for career kills (2,008) and kills per game (4.56) and was a two-time Big 12 Female Athlete of the Year after leading NU to four straight Big 12 titles and the 2006 NCAA title. An NCAA Top Eight Award winner, Pavan was a two-time CoSIDA Academic All-American of the Year for all sports. She averaged 4.83 kills, 1.90 digs and 0.49 service aces per game in 2007, earning Big 12 Player-of-the-Year honors for the third straight season. In 2006, she won the Honda-Broderick Cup as the nation's premier female college athlete and was named AVCA Player of the Year after averaging a school-record 5.10 kills per game in helping Nebraska to its third NCAA title. In 2004, she was named AVCA National Freshman of the Year after setting Husker freshman marks for kills (481) and kills per game (4.54). She plays professionally overseas and rejoined the Canadian National Team in 2010.

Rachel Holloway, 2006, 2007

Setter, Franklin, Tenn.

Rachel Holloway was a two-time AVCA All-American who helped NU to a 63-3 record as a starter. She finished her career ranked eighth on NU's all-time assists list with 2,861, while her 13.50 assists per set marked the highest total in school history. She earned second-team AVCA All-America honors in 2007 by averaging 13.58 assists per set and helping NU rank third in team hitting percentage (.327). In 2006, she was a third-team AVCA All-American, becoming only the second freshman setter to guide a team to a national title. Holloway guided an offense that led the nation in assists (16.20) and kills (17.40) per set and ranked second in hitting percentage (.295).

Tracy Stalls, 2006, 2007

Middle Blocker, Denver, Colo.

Tracy Stalls was one of the nation's top middle blockers, earning second-team AVCA All-America honors in 2006 and 2007. As a senior, Stalls averaged 2.83 kills and ranked third nationally with a .473 hitting percentage, shattering school and Big 12 hitting percentage marks. In 2006, she averaged 2.67 kills per game while leading the Big 12 with a .400 hitting percentage in helping the Huskers to a national title. A four-year starter and two-time All-Big 12 performer, Stalls finished her career in the top five in both total blocks (578) and block assists (528).

Christina Houghtelling, 2005, 2007

Outside Hitter, Cambridge, Neb.

A two-time All-American, Christina Houghtelling was one of the nation's most versatile performers. She earned second-team All-America accolades in 2007, averaging 3.02 kills and 3.95 digs to earn Big 12 Defensive Player-of-the-Year honors after missing all of 2006 with shoulder surgery. In 2005, Houghtelling was named the AVCA National Player of the Year, leading the Huskers to an NCAA runner-up finish. She averaged 3.69 kills, 2.49 digs and 1.03 blocks per game. Houghtelling was at her best against the Huskers' toughest opponents, earning MVP honors at the AVCA/NACWAA Showcase and at the NCAA Omaha Regional. She also earned All-Big 12 honors for the first time in 2005.

Jennifer Saleaumua, 2004, 2005

Outside Hitter, National City, Calif.

One of the nation's best all-around performers during her Husker career, Jennifer Saleaumua earned second-team All-America honors in 2004 and third-team accolades in 2005. A two-time Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year, Saleaumua finished her career as one of only three Huskers to total more than 1,000 kills and 1,000 digs. She still stands as NU's all-time leader in digs with 1,568 and ranks 11th with 1,247 career kills. She totaled 40 career double-doubles while helping the Huskers rank among the nation's leaders in defense in each of her last two seasons. Saleaumua earned All-Big 12 accolades all four seasons as a Husker, including first-team honors in 2002, 2003 and 2004.

Melissa Elmer, 2003, 2004, 2005

Middle Blocker, Fort Wayne, Ind.

One of the nation's most feared blockers during her collegiate career, Melissa Elmer was a three-time AVCA All-American. Elmer led the nation in blocking in each of her final two seasons (2004-05), averaging a school-record 2.17 blocks per game as a senior. She had 10 or more blocks in 10 matches, including a Big 12-record 16 blocks against Kansas, while also averaging 2.68 kills per game. A three-time All-Big 12 performer, she finished her career as the Big 12's all-time leader with 767 blocks and was one of only three Big 12 players to total 1,000 kills and 700 blocks. In 2004, she led the nation with 1.89 blocks per game, totaling 200 total blocks en route to first-team All-America honors.

Greichaly Cepero, 2000, 2001, 2002

Setter, Dorado, Puerto Rico

Greichaly Cepero virtually redefined the setter position with her all-around skills and blocking ability during her highly decorated career at Nebraska. A first-team AVCA All-American in 2000 and 2002 and a second-team pick in 2001, Cepero was just the second setter in school history to become a three-time AVCA All-American. She also earned Big 12 Player-of-the-Year honors in 2000 and shared the award with teammates Amber Holmquist and Laura Pilakowski in 2002. A CoSIDA Academic All-American, Cepero was also the 2000 Honda Award winner for volleyball. The best blocking setter in NU history, Cepero ended her senior season tied for fourth on the all-time charts with 84 career solo blocks, and ranks 10th all-time in total blocks (507) and second in set assists (3,987). In her three seasons as the starting setter, NU never hit less than .304 and ranked among the top 10 nationally in that category each of her three seasons.

Amber Holmquist, 2000, 2001, 2002

Middle Blocker, Houston, Texas

Amber Holmquist will be remembered as one of the best middle blockers in school history. A first-team AVCA All-American in 2001 and 2002 and a second-team pick in 2000, Holmquist owned or shared 17 school records and eight Big 12 Conference records. Holmquist concluded her career ranked second on the Nebraska all-time charts with a .396 hitting percentage and 15th on the all-time kills chart with 1,122. As a sophomore in 2000, Holmquist shattered three Nebraska single-season blocking records, setting new marks with 199 block assists, 220 total blocks and 1.98 blocks per game. A 2002 CoSIDA Second-Team Academic All-American, Holmquist also finished her career with Big 12 records for single-season hitting percentage, total blocks and blocks per game, as well as single-match records for block assists and total blocks. Holmquist finished her career as the first player in school history to lead NU in hitting percentage and blocks per game in four consecutive seasons.

Laura Pilakowski, 2000, 2002

Outside Hitter, Columbus, Neb.

Laura Pilakowski earned first-team AVCA All-America honors in her first season as a starter in 2000, and second-team honors in her final season with NU in 2002. Pilakowski finished her career ranked ninth all-time with 1,183 kills and eighth with a .318 career hitting percentage, the best mark in school history at the time by an outside hitter. The Huskers' go-to offensive player during the 2000 national title run, Pilakowski led NU with 4.30 kills per game and a .336 hitting percentage in 2000. She was the third three-time CoSIDA Academic All-American volleyball player in school history.

Jenny Kropp, 2001

Middle Blocker, Grand Island, Neb.

Jenny Kropp was named an AVCA Second-Team All-American after dominating opponents at the net in 2001 with 1.73 blocks per game and 180 total blocks. Offensively, Kropp hit .371 with 2.45 kills per game as a senior. She finished her career with 816 kills and a .331 career hitting percentage. Kropp still ranks seventh all-time in total blocks (544) and fifth in block assists (484).

Nancy Metcalf (Meendering),

1998, 1999, 2001

Right Side Hitter, Hull, Iowa

Nancy Metcalf (Meendering) will be remembered as one of the best players in Nebraska volleyball history. Metcalf was just the second three-time AVCA First-Team All-American at Nebraska and played for the United States in the 2004 Olympics. She was also honored as an NCAA Top Eight Award winner, a two-time Big 12 Player of the Year, a three-time CoSIDA Academic All-American, the 2001 CoSIDA Academic All-American of the Year, a two-time NCAA Regional MVP and a three-time first-team All-Big 12 honoree. Metcalf finished her career with 1,603 kills and 412 blocks. Metcalf was the only Husker to record six 30-kill matches in a career, and owned or shared 13 school records, including kills in a single match with 39 against Kansas State in 1999.

Megan Korver, 1998

Middle Blocker, Panama, Neb.

Megan Korver, a native of Panama, Neb., emerged as one of the dominant middle blockers in the country during her senior season to earn second-team AVCA All-America honors. Korver led the nation in hitting percentage through the first half of the season and finished with an impressive .358 mark. She set a school record and became just the 11th player in NCAA history to hit 1,000 in a match by recording 10 kills on 10 swings against Iowa State. Korver ranks ninth on the school charts with 517 total blocks despite playing just three seasons at NU.

Fiona Nepo, 1996, 1997, 1998

Setter, Honolulu, Hawaii

Fiona Nepo had one of the most decorated careers of any player in Nebraska volleyball history. The 1998 Big 12 Player of the Year, Nepo finished her career as the all-time assist leader at NU with 4,824, and she also owns the NU single-season assist record, which she set in 1996 with 1,653. Nepo was one of only 12 setters in NCAA Division I history to earn three All-America certificates, earning first-team honors her sophomore and senior seasons. With Nepo in the starting lineup, Nebraska compiled an 88-13 overall record, including a 54-6 Big 12 mark, won two Big 12 championships and made two NCAA semifinal appearances. The three-time team captain was also a tremendous jump server, notching 94 service aces during her career.

Lisa Reitsma, 1995, 1996, 1997

Right Side Hitter, Sanborn, Iowa

Lisa Reitsma earned first-team All-America honors as a sophomore and junior and a second-team award as a senior. Reitsma was a three-time first-team all-conference selection, including the 1996 Big 12 Player of the Year. She burst on the scene as a sophomore and was a key ingredient as the Huskers won their first national title. Reitsma left her mark on the Husker record books, as she ranks in the top five in kills (1,633, third) and attacks (3,766, fourth). She had more than 25 kills in a match nine times, the second-most by any Husker in school history.

Christy Johnson, 1994, 1995

Setter, Omaha, Neb.

Christy Johnson guided the Huskers to their first national championship in 1995 and earned first-team All-America honors her junior and senior seasons. She holds the second-best winning percentage of any starting setter in school history, leading Nebraska to a near-perfect 63-2 record, including 24-0 in Big Eight play, over her final two seasons. She still holds the top two season marks for assists-per-game in school history and ranks fifth in career assists with 3,183. She was also a 1995 CoSIDA Academic All-American.

Allison Weston, 1993, 1994, 1995

Middle Blocker, Papillion, Neb.

Allison Weston is arguably one of the best collegiate players in NCAA history. Nebraska's first three-time, first-team AVCA All-American, Weston capped an impressive career by winning the 1995 national title and sharing AVCA Player-of-the-Year honors with Cary Wendell of Stanford. The former captain of the U.S. National Team, Weston still holds the school record for kills in a four-game match (37). She ranks second all-time at Nebraska with 1,778 kills and is in the career top 10 in attacks (sixth, 3,659), service aces (eighth, 119), solo blocks (tied for fourth, 84), block assists (10th, 422) and hitting percentage (seventh, .353). Weston holds three of the top-10 single-match kill performances. A two-time CoSIDA Academic All-American, Weston was also a two-time Big Eight Player of the Year during her playing career.

Kelly Aspegren, 1994

Outside Hitter, Callaway, Neb.

Kelly Aspegren, a two-year starter for the Huskers, had 332 kills as a senior and hit .344 to lead Nebraska, including .410 in Big Eight play. Aspegren was a first-team All-Big Eight selection as a senior and was tabbed honorable mention as a junior. She was also a two-time academic All-Big Eight selection. During her two years as a starter, Nebraska compiled a 56-7 overall mark and a 22-2 Big Eight ledger. She finished her career with 557 kills on 1,329 attacks for a .280 career hitting percentage and an average of 2.29 kills per game. She also recorded 657 digs and 156 blocks for career averages of 2.70 and 0.64 per game.

Stephanie Thater, 1990, 1991, 1992

Middle Blocker, Union, Mo.

Stephanie Thater was the second three-time All-American in Husker volleyball history and is still regarded as one of the best middle blockers to come through the NU program. She led her team to the NCAA semifinals as a sophomore and compiled an 81-14 record in her three years as a starter. Her teams went 48-0 in regular-season conference play, winning four Big Eight titles and three conference tournament championships. Thater was a two-time Big Eight Player of the Year and a three-time all-conference selection. She holds the school record for block assists in a five-game match with 14. Her season records for block assists (165), total blocks (197) and blocks per game (1.92) stood for seven years before Amber Holmquist topped them in 2000, and her career records for block assists (502) and total blocks (591) stood until 2002.

Cris Hall, 1991

Outside Hitter, Chanute, Kan.

Cris Hall is one of only five athletes and the only female in Nebraska history to earn All-America honors in two different sports. Hall was a second-team All-American as an outside hitter in 1991, and earned four All-America track certificates from 1991 to 1993 (three high jump, one heptathlon). Hall still holds the NU all-time outdoor track record in the heptathlon (5,936 points). Her 1,251 career kills rank ninth in school history.

Janet Kruse, 1989, 1990, 1991

Outside Hitter, Fort Calhoun, Neb.

Janet Kruse is one of the finest student-athletes to ever play for the Huskers. A native of Fort Calhoun, Neb., Kruse was Nebraska's first three-time All-American, earning first-team honors in 1989 and 1990 and second-team honors in 1991. She was also named the NCAA Woman of the Year for Nebraska and garnered an NCAA Today Top Eight award in 1992, after twice earning CoSIDA Academic All-American-of-the-Year honors in 1990 and 1991. She also earned third-team academic All-America honors in 1989. During her career, the Huskers made two NCAA semifinal appearances, including a title appearance in 1989. Her 33 kills in a five-game win over Kentucky are tied for eighth on the all-time single-match charts. Kruse also ranks ninth on Nebraska's career kill charts with 1,269 kills.

Val Novak, 1989, 1990

Setter, Oak Lawn, Ill.

A native of Oak Lawn, Ill., Val Novak earned first-team All-America certificates after leading the Huskers to NCAA semifinal appearances in 1989 and 1990, including a runner-up finish in 1989. Novak, who converted to setter after playing outside hitter her first two seasons, ended her career by earning the Big Eight Player-of-the-Year award in 1990. She finished with 778 career kills and ranks second in career service aces (161), eighth in digs (1,068) and fourth in set assists (3,303). She led the nation in assists per set and guided Nebraska to the nation's top hitting percentage in 1989. NU never finished lower than fifth in the national rankings during her career.

Virginia Stahr, 1988, 1989

Middle Blocker, Waco, Neb.

Virginia Stahr set the standard for excellence in the Nebraska volleyball program as a standout athlete and student. Stahr was tabbed a two-time All-American and capped her career by leading the Huskers to a national runner-up finish in 1989. She earned the NCAA Today Top Eight award after earning CoSIDA Academic All-American-of-the-Year honors in 1988 and 1989. Her teams won four Big Eight regular-season titles and three conference tournament titles, and she was named the 1989 Big Eight Player of the Year. She still shares the school record for service aces in a five-game match (7), while her 31 kills vs. Texas rank 16th on the all-time single-match charts. She also ranks third in school history in career service aces (159), second in solo blocks (106), fifth in total blocks (555) and seventh in block assists (449).

Lori Endicott, 1987, 1988

Setter, Springfield, Mo.

Lori Endicott is one of the most decorated setters in Nebraska's long line of All-America setters. Endicott earned first-team honors as a senior and was a second-team selection as a junior after playing right side her first two seasons. Endicott continued her playing career as a member of the U.S. National Team from 1988 to 1996. She was America's starting setter at the 1992 and 1996 Olympic Games and was named the best setter at the Barcelona Games after leading the United States to a bronze medal. A two-time Big Eight Player of the Year, Endicott led Nebraska to four Big Eight regular-season titles during her career. She was also named a 1988 CoSIDA Academic All-American. Several of Endicott's marks may stand untouched for years, including her school-record 109 assists vs. Texas.

Karen Dahlgren, 1985, 1986

Middle Blocker, Bertrand, Neb.

Karen Dahlgren played a key role in Nebraska's 1986 national runner-up finish. A two-time All-American, Dahlgren was honored as a Honda-Sport Award winner in volleyball after being named to the CoSIDA Academic All-America team three straight years. Dahlgren holds school records for solo blocks in three- and four-game matches. She also holds the top two single-season solo block marks as well as NU's career solo block record. She ranks sixth on the all-time total blocks chart with 550. The Bertrand native is also third in school history with a career hitting percentage of .386. She is one of only four players to lead the Huskers in a statistical category (blocks) all four years. Dahlgren was also NU's first volleyball CoSIDA Academic All-American, earning honors in 1984, 1985 and 1986.

Tisha Delaney, 1986

Setter, Festus, Mo.

Tisha Delaney is responsible for leading Nebraska to its first NCAA semifinal appearance in 1986, where the Huskers defeated Stanford before losing to Pacific in the title match. An AVCA second-team All-American as a senior, Delaney set school records as a senior for assists in four-game (63) and five-game matches (88), both of which Lori Endicott surpassed in 1988. Delaney still ranks among the Husker single-season top 10 in service aces (49), and assists (1,433) as well as career assists (2,605).

Enid Schonewise, 1986

Outside Hitter, Beatrice, Neb.

Enid Schonewise earned second-team All-America honors and first-team All-Big Eight honors in 1986. Schonewise held the school record for kills in a match (38 vs. Arizona State, 1986) for nearly 14 seasons. She still ranks 10th on the Husker single-season kills list with 493 in 1986.

Annie Adamczak, 1985

Middle Blocker, Moose Lake, Minn.

Annie Adamczak was a three-year starter in the Nebraska volleyball program and capped her career by earning first-team All-America honors as a senior after leading the Huskers with 354 digs. She is one of four Nebraska volleyball players to be named the conference Female Athlete of the Year, joining Virginia Stahr in 1989, Greichaly Cepero in 2001 and Sarah Pavan in 2006 and 2007. A two-time All-Big Eight selection, Adamczak held the three-game school record for digs with 28 until 2009, when Kayla Banwarth recorded 32 against Baylor. During Adamczak's career, Nebraska won all four regular-season and tournament conference titles and twice advanced to the NCAA Midwest Regional Championship.

Cathy Noth, 1983, 1984

Setter, Bettendorf, Iowa

Cathy Noth moved from outside hitter to setter her junior season and earned AVCA All-America honors in 1983 and 1984. Noth guided NU to its first NCAA Tournament appearance in 1982 and helped Nebraska compile a four-year-record of 112-24, winning four Big Eight regular-season titles and four Big Eight Tournament crowns. She set a then-Big Eight and school record with a .398 hitting percentage in 1984. Noth's career hitting percentage of .366 still ranks fourth in school history. Noth was also Nebraska's first three-time All-Big Eight selection and the only volleyball player in the history of the conference to earn three Big Eight Tournament MVP awards. Noth served as an assistant coach under Terry Pettit from 1988 to 1998.

Terri Kanouse, 1980 (AIAW)

Middle Blocker, St. Paul, Ind.

Terri Kanouse helped put Nebraska on the volleyball map by earning AIAW All-America honors in 1980, the program's first national honor. A two-time first-team all-district selection, Kanouse was also named first-team All-Big Eight her final three seasons. Kanouse was also a two-year team captain for the Huskers.

Annie Adamczak earned first-team AVCA All-America honors as a senior in 1985.

THIS IS NEBRASKA

There is no place like Nebraska...and there is no experience like Nebraska volleyball. For four decades, Nebraska volleyball has set the standard for excellence. From academic and athletic success to sellout crowds and national media exposure, the Huskers are at the forefront of the sport.

Nebraska volleyball players are achievers. The Huskers lead the nation in All-Americans (76) and CoSIDA Academic All-Americans (37). Four Huskers have claimed National Player-of-the-Year awards, while Sarah Pavan became Nebraska's first Honda-Broderick Cup award winner in 2007.

A TRADITION OF SUCCESS

Nebraska has earned 32 straight trips to the NCAA Tournament and owns a 1,192-217-12 all-time record. The Huskers have won 30-or-more matches 20 times, including eight of the last 14 years under Coach John Cook.

HUSKER ALL-AMERICANS

Nebraska leads the nation in AVCA All-Americans, producing 38 student-athletes who have combined for 76 All-America certificates. Nebraska is second nationally with 41 first-team All-America awards. First-team AVCA All-American Kelsey Robinson and third-team honoree Kadie Rolfzen led the Huskers in 2013, while Meghan Haggerty and Mary Pollmiller added honorable-mention awards. Nebraska has had at least one All-American every season since 1983, (32 straight seasons) including 41 All-Americans in Coach John Cook's 14 seasons.

OLYMPIANS

Nebraska volleyball has produced five U.S. Olympians: Cathy Noth (1988 alternate), Lori Endicott (1992, 1996), Allison Weston (2000), Nancy Metcalf (2004) and Jordan Larson (2012).

POLL LEADERS

Nebraska is one of only two programs nationally to be ranked in all 462 AVCA Coaches Polls since 1982. Nebraska has been ranked in the top 10 418 times and was ranked in the top 10 for 115 consecutive weeks (Aug. 30, 2004-Sept. 5, 2011).

ACADEMIC TRADITION

Nebraska volleyball is unmatched in the classroom. The Huskers have combined for a nation-leading 37 CoSIDA Academic All-America awards. Gina Mancuso was named a first-team CoSIDA Academic All-American in 2012. Kori Cooper was a two-time first-team CoSIDA Academic All-American (2008, 2009), and Nebraska has had 11 academic All-Americans over the past nine seasons. In 2007, Sarah Pavan was the CoSIDA Academic All-American of the Year in college volleyball and all NCAA Division I athletics for the second straight year. She is the only student-athlete in history to accomplish that feat. Husker volleyball players have earned four NCAA Top Ten Awards, seven CoSIDA Academic All-American-of-the-Year awards and seven NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships.

CHAMPIONSHIP TRADITION

Nebraska has staked its claim as one of the country's premier volleyball schools over the last four decades.

The Huskers are tied for third among all NCAA programs with three national titles (1995, 2000, 2006) and have advanced to 11 NCAA semifinals, including five this decade.

Nebraska has advanced to the Sweet 16 in 19 of the last 20 seasons and was the only program to reach every Sweet 16 from 2000 to 2010.

NEBRASKA'S FIRST TITLE (1995)

The 1995 Nebraska volleyball team rebounded from a setback to Stanford in its second match of the season to reel off 31 consecutive wins, including a 3-1 win over Texas to claim the program's first national title. An amazing 28 of Nebraska's 32 victories were 3-0 wins. The Huskers posted school records for wins and winning percentage that stood until 2000. Three NU players were named AVCA All-Americans, including AVCA Co-National Player-of-the-Year Allison Weston.

THE PERFECT SEASON (2000)

The 2000 Nebraska volleyball team produced one of the best seasons in NCAA history, culminating with the program's second national championship with a 3-2 victory over Wisconsin. Ranked sixth and 11th in the preseason polls, the young Huskers finished the season with a 34-0 record and became just the second team in NCAA history to go undefeated and win a national title. First-year Coach John Cook was named the AVCA Coach of the Year, and first-year setter Greichaly Cepero earned AVCA National Player-of-the-Year honors.

HOME-GROWN CHAMPS (2006)

The 2006 Nebraska volleyball team was dominant from start to finish, going 33-1 en route to winning the school's third national title. The Huskers were ranked No. 1 all season, becoming only the third team in NCAA history to accomplish the feat. The Huskers swept 24 of 34 matches and were a perfect 12-0 against nationally ranked teams. The Huskers capped the season with wins over fourth-ranked UCLA and second-ranked Stanford at the NCAA Championship in front of sold-out crowds at Qwest Center Omaha. Four players earned AVCA All-America honors, including AVCA National Player-of-the-Year Sarah Pavan.

HOME OF CHAMPIONS

At Nebraska, volleyball is not just a game, it's an event. Some of the things you'll experience at an NU volleyball match include: Fans chanting "Husker Power" at deafening levels, Lil' Red entertaining children, the Tunnel Walk whipping the crowd into a frenzy as the Huskers take the court, and autograph seekers swarming players after each match.

In 2013, the Huskers moved into the beautifully renovated Bob Devaney Sports Center and led the nation in attendance with 8,175 fans per match packing the Devaney Center. The Huskers also extended their NCAA-record home sellout streak to 200 consecutive matches, including 19 at the Devaney Center and 181 at the historic NU Coliseum. Nebraska has ranked in the top three nationally in attendance every season for more than two decades. The Huskers also own two of the five longest home winning streaks in NCAA volleyball history.

The Devaney Center features five suites, ceiling trusses that mimic Nebraska's old homecourt at the historic NU Coliseum and a great wall replicating the Coliseum entry. It also features 10MM video boards inside the arena, while the Huskers received a new locker room, ready room and administrative offices.

Top: Nebraska celebrated the opening of its new home court at the Bob Devaney Sports Center with a sellout crowd of 8,243 at its annual Red-White Scrimmage on Saturday, Aug. 24, 2013. Nebraska led the nation in attendance in 2013, while stretching its NCAA-record home sellout streak to 200 consecutive matches.

Middle: The Devaney Center received $20 million in renovations prior to the volleyball team's move into its new home, including a new HuskerVision screen to help provide an electric atmosphere. The most knowledgeable volleyball fans in the nation celebrate every point with the Big Red. The Huskers prepare with intense focus, emotion and unity of purpose.

Bottom: All-American Kelsey Robinson (#23), Cecilia Hall (#10) and Amber Rolfzen (#5) celebrate a Husker victory. Home-court wins are the norm at Nebraska, as the Big Red own two of the four longest home winning streaks in college volleyball history.

THE NATION'S BEST VOLLEYBALL FACILITIES

Nebraska's new home for volleyball, the Bob Devaney Sports Center was sold out for all 19 home matches in 2013. Nebraska led the nation in attendance with 8,175 fans per match, stretching its NCAA-record sellout streak to 200 consecutive matches.

While internal renovations were completed in 2013 to give the Huskers a spectacular new homecourt, external renovations at the Devaney Center continue in 2014, demonstrating Nebraska's amazing commitment to providing the best facilities to the nation's finest student-athletes.

The Devaney Center, which was renovated and reconfigured specifically for volleyball in 2013, features five suites, new ceiling trusses that mimic Nebraska's previous homecourt, the historic NU Coliseum, and a great wall to replicate the Coliseum entry. The project also included 10MM video boards to create an electric atmosphere inside the arena, while the Huskers also enjoy a new locker room, ready room and administrative offices.

Right (from top): Nebraska's new team room and locker room inside the Devaney Center give the Huskers space to focus, study or relax before and after workouts or matches. Legendary Nebraska Coach Terry Pettit joined his family and the Huskers at the Devaney Center as NU's new homecourt was named in his honor on Sept. 6, 2013.

Bottom: The Huskers have been ranked in the top three nationally in attendance for more than a decade and have sold out 200 straight home matches since 2001. Nebraska led the nation in attendance in 2013, as 155,324 fans watched the Huskers in their first season at the Devaney Center.

The Hawks Championship Center (bottom) provides a year-round indoor training center for the Husker volleyball program. The facility features an 81,200 square-foot field that is available to all 24 of Nebraska's varsity teams and provides a controlled environment with excellent lighting.

The Hawks Championship Center includes an Olympic-sized (8x16 meters) sand volleyball court (top). The special sand has been washed and polished to prevent dust, similar to the sand used during Olympic beach competition.

OUTSIDE HITTERS: ALL-AROUND EXCELLENCE

Outside hitters have become household names at Nebraska. Sarah Pavan, Jordan Larson, Kelsey Robinson, Kadie Rolfzen, Christina Houghtelling, Jennifer Saleaumua, Nancy Metcalf, Laura Pilakowski, Tara Mueller, Lindsey Licht, Hannah Werth, Gina Mancuso and Lisa Reitsma have dominated the college landscape.

Outside hitters have flourished at Nebraska, earning 28 All-America awards since 1996, including AVCA National Players of the Year Christina Houghtelling (2005) and Sarah Pavan (2006).

In 2013, Robinson earned Big Ten Player-of-the-Year and first-team AVCA All-America honors. She was joined on the AVCA All-America team by Rolfzen, who was the AVCA North Region Freshman of the Year. NU's outside hitters are the most versatile players in the nation. Werth (2010), Larson (2006, 2008), Houghtelling (2007) and Saleaumua (2004, 2005) were all conference defensive players of the year.

OUTSTANDING COACHES

Since taking over for legendary coach Terry Pettit on Dec. 15, 1999, John Cook has led Nebraska to a pair of national titles, five NCAA semifinal appearances, eight Big 12 Conference titles and Nebraska's first Big Ten title in 2012. Cook has guided NU to a 384-45 overall record and a

236-24 league mark. With Cook at the helm, NU has produced three U.S. Olympians, three AVCA Division I National Players of the Year, two NCAA Top Ten Award winners, two Honda Award winners, 41 AVCA All-Americans, three CoSIDA Academic All-Americans of the Year and 18

CoSIDA Academic All-Americans. The 2014 Husker staff includes Dan Meske and Dani Busboom Kelly, who both enjoyed successful playing careers. Meske graduated from Ohio State, while Busboom Kelly was a member of Nebraska's 2006 national championship team.

NEBRASKA'S RETIRED JERSEYS

Seven former Husker volleyball players have received the highest honor the Nebraska program can bestow, a retired jersey at the Devaney Center.

Karen Dahlgren, Lori Endicott, Cathy Noth and Allison Weston received a permanent place in Nebraska volleyball history during the 2003 season, as a Wall of Honor was created to highlight the accomplishments of the program's most outstanding student-athletes.

Since then, Janet Kruse (2004), Stephanie Thater (2010) and Nancy Metcalf (2011) have taken places among the most honored Huskers in history on the Wall of Honor.

CHAMPIONSHIP FACILITIES

Nebraska's top facilities are not limited to the volleyball program. Nearly every Husker sport enjoys a venue that ranks among the nation's best. Nebraska provides its student-athletes top-notch game-day and practice atmospheres in every sport.

The volleyball team moved into the Devaney Center for the first time in 2013, after the building received a $20 million renovation. The baseball, softball, men's and women's basketball, volleyball and wrestling programs have all benefitted from new practice facilities within the last two seasons.

Top: Memorial Stadium entered 2014 with a nation-leading 333 consecutive sellouts. The stadium expanded by more than 5,000 seats in 2013, while adding an innovative academic/athletic research wing in the East Stadium. The Osborne Athletic Complex (bottom left) provides Nebraska student-athletes with top-notch training facilities. The main entrance to the Osborne Athletic Complex and Traditions Lobby features an impressive waterfall and a wall that honors those who contributed to the massive project, as well as memorabilia and trophies from all of Nebraska's bowl games.

Middle: Nebraska's teams compete in front of huge crowds in the nation's finest facilities. The softball, wrestling and track and field programs enjoy some of the best practice and competition-day atmospheres in the country. The Nebraska soccer and tennis programs will benefit from new homes in 2014-15.

Bottom right: Hawks Field at Haymarket Park provides the Huskers with the finest baseball stadium in the Big Ten. Nebraska shares its home ballpark with the Lincoln Saltdogs, an independent minor league team. The home of Nebraska softball, Bowlin Stadium, is right next to Haymarket Park and both the baseball and softball programs benefit from the new Alex Gordon Training Complex.

ATHLETIC MEDICINE

Providing expert care to more than 600 Husker student-athletes, Nebraska features one of the most well-trained and highly skilled athletic medicine staffs in the country.

Under the guidance of Director of Athletic Medicine Dr. Lonnie Albers, Head Athletic Trainer and Physical Therapist Jerry Weber and Volleyball Athletic Trainer Jolene Emricson, the 2014-15 Nebraska athletic medicine staff consists of five doctors, 13 athletic trainers and six graduate assistant athletic trainers.

Nebraska's team of orthopaedists is led by Chief of Staff Dr. Pat Clare, a nationally respected orthopaedic surgeon with more than 30 years of service to Husker athletics.

Above: Assistant Athletic Director and Director of Athletic Medicine Dr. Lonnie Albers coordinates the care of Husker student-athletes by using some of the best on-site technology in collegiate athletics.

The Athletic Medicine Center features a hydrotherapy area that includes a three-level laned pool, which allows student-athletes across all of Nebraska's sports to work out simultaneously. The Hydroworx 1000 Treadmill Pool is equipped with two cameras underwater for evaluation and assessment, while hot and cold plunge tanks are also available to the Huskers.

The medical facilities at Nebraska have long been among the nation's best, and NU's athletic medicine center within the Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex will keep the Huskers on the front line of technology for decades to come. In addition to Nebraska's North Stadium facility, the Bob Devaney Sports Center, Pinnacle Bank Arena and Haymarket Park all feature athletic medicine areas. The Devaney Center's Athletic Medicine facility underwent an extensive expansion as part of the Hendricks Training Complex addition in 2011.

Using the best on-site medical equipment and resources in college athletics, the Nebraska athletic medicine staff provides Husker student-athletes with highly skilled medical care throughout the year.

NUTRITION

Nebraska's Sports Nutritionists Lindsey Remmers and Ryan Reist work with all 24 of Nebraska's sports by educating athletes on topics such as increasing lean body mass, losing body fat, staying hydrated, nutritional strategies for competition, maximizing recovery following workouts and supplement use. Athletes are given individualized nutrition plans that can be applied in Nebraska's Performance Buffet at the Lewis Training Table, which was remodeled and expanded in the 2010 season. In addition to utilizing the Lewis Training Table each day for lunch and dinner, student-athletes also have access to fueling stations near strength and conditioning areas to provide fluids and nutritional foods before and after workouts to maximize performance and recovery.

HUSKER POWER

The model strength and conditioning program in the nation, Husker Power plays a major role in the continuing success of Nebraska athletics. Nebraska's strength program was the first in the nation. With 13 staff members, Husker Power is one of the most comprehensive strength and conditioning organizations in the nation.

Nebraska's strength training facilities have set the standard in collegiate athletics since the early 1970s. The Ndamukong Suh Strength and Conditioning Center in the Osborne Athletic Complex and Nebraska's impressive new weight room at the Hendricks Training Complex have taken Husker Power to whole new level in recent years.

"The University of Nebraska strength and development program is the model for others in the country."

BUILDING THE ALL-AROUND VOLLEYBALL PLAYER

The University of Nebraska volleyball strength and conditioning coach is dedicated to making each student-athlete the best all-around volleyball player they can become. The goal of the strength coach is to help the volleyball player reach her full potential on the court. With the year-round lifting and conditioning program, we strive to reduce injuries and at the same time increase performance.

STRENGTH STAFF

Brian Kmitta enters his second season as head strength coach for the volleyball program in 2014. The strength and conditioning program's goal is to produce strength, speed, power and discipline. Making sure the student-athletes are strong, healthy, and competitive is the number one priority. Another goal is to build team dynamics, leadership and mental toughness through different conditioning drills.

TRAINING FOR VOLLEYBALL

WEIGHT TRAINING

The weight lifting program consists of both strength and explosive exercises that focus on ground-based and multi-joint movements.

Off-season lifting consists of four days a week of lifting with two days of explosive training and two days of strength training. In-season lifting is two days a week focusing on total body movements.

PLYOMETRIC AND AGILITY TRAINING

It is important to condition like a volleyball player. Volleyball is a game that requires agility and explosiveness on a consistent basis. It is important to follow this pattern when performing conditioning drills, as plyometric exercises are specialized, high-intensity training techniques used to develop athletic power.

CONDITIONING

Volleyball is a fast-paced game of short bursts requiring change of directions both laterally and vertically. Developing volleyball endurance is also crucial to prepare for five sets.

The conditioning consists of plyometric, agility, speed and endurance training. Plyometric training is used to increase verticals and to work on landings to reduce injuries. Volleyball players need to be able to change direction quickly and get to top speed as fast as possible.

FLEXIBILITY

Flexibility is another important component to the overall volleyball program. It is worked on throughout the year during conditioning sessions and practice. Yoga is also used during the season to increase performance and reduce injury.

THE INJURED ATHLETE

We have constant communication with the Athletic Medicine Staff in order to plan a successful training program to get the athlete promptly and safely back to competition.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

University of Nebraska student-athletes produced another outstanding year in competition, in the classroom and in the community, continuing NU's tradition of success in 2013-14. The Huskers increased their nation-leading total of all-time CoSIDA Academic All-Americans to 314 with a Big Ten-best seven academic All-Americans across all sports, while also claiming a Big Ten-leading four NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships in 2013-14.

Nebraska's seven CoSIDA Academic All-Americans ranked among the highest totals in the nation across all divisions. The Huskers maintained their lead of 76 all-time CoSIDA Academic All-Americans over national No. 2 Notre Dame. The only school in the nation with 300 academic All-Americans, Nebraska is one of just three schools across all divisions with 200 or more, joining Notre Dame and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT). NU leads the nation in CoSIDA Academic All-Americans since 2000 with 124, extending its nation-leading streak to 43 consecutive years with at least one academic All-American.

The Huskers also increased their nation-leading total of NCAA Top Ten Award winners to 17, as former women's tennis All-American Mary Weatherholt was honored during the 2013-14 academic year. Nebraska also ranks among the nation's best in the total of NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship winners, including four during the fall and winter seasons of 2013-14. Spencer Long (Football), Eric Schryver (Men's Gymnastics), Emily Wong (Women's Gymnastics) and Sunny Russell (Rifle) all claimed the prestigious national awards. NCAA awards for the spring sports season have not been announced.

A total of 675 awards were issued for the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Fall (354) and Spring (321) Honor Roll, recognizing Husker student-athletes who produced a 3.0 GPA or better during a semester. Among that group, Huskers produced 87 perfect 4.0 GPA semesters. A total of 62 Nebraska student-athletes also were honored as Big Ten Distinguished Scholars for posting 3.7 grade-point averages or better and lettering in their respective sports in 2013-14.

Nebraska's CoSIDA Academic All-America success continues to set the standard for the approximately 1,400 member institutions. The Husker football team leads all individual sport programs in the nation with 107 all-time CoSIDA Academic All-America awards, including 2013 first-team honoree Spencer Long and second-team selections Jake Long and C.J. Zimmerer. Spencer Long added a prestigious National Football Foundation Postgraduate Scholarship worth $18,000, along with prestigious NCAA Postgraduate ($7,500) and Big Ten Wayne Duke Postgraduate ($10,000) scholarships before being chosen in the third round of the 2014 NFL Draft. Zimmerer added a spot on the AFCA Good Works Team and claimed Nebraska's Big Ten Sportsmanship Award for his extensive community involvement.

The Nebraska men's and women's track and field program added three academic All-Americans, including first-teamers Levi Gipson and Anne Martin, along with second-team pick Cody Rush. Martin and John Welk swept the NCAA Elite 89 awards for the Huskers as the student-athletes with the top grade-point averages competing at the NCAA Outdoor Track & Field Championships for the second consecutive season. Nebraska's 38 combined CoSIDA Academic All-America honors since 2002 for the men's and women's track and field program lead the nation.

Emily Wong, an 11-time All-American in competition for the Nebraska women's gymnastics team, added a first-team CoSIDA Academic All-America award to cap one of the greatest all-around careers for a student-athlete in Husker history. A two-time academic All-American, Wong was named the winner of the 2014 AAI Award presented to the nation's top collegiate gymnast. The Honda Award finalist and Big Ten Gymnast of the Year earned prestigious NCAA Postgraduate ($7,500) and Big Ten Wayne Duke Postgraduate ($10,000) scholarships. Her achievements earned her Nebraska's Female Student-Athlete-of-the-Year Award and the Big Ten Medal of Honor. Men's track and field student-athlete Seth Wiedel was Nebraska's Male Student-Athlete of the Year and Big Ten Medal of Honor winner.

THE NEBRASKA ACADEMIC EXPERIENCE

From the day student-athletes decide the University of Nebraska is the right place to be, the athletic academic counseling unit provides personal and academic support to ensure that student-athletes will get the most out of their years as Huskers. Featuring one of the most innovative and comprehensive academic support systems in the country, Nebraska is dedicated to helping its student-athletes become outstanding leaders in their chosen fields. The academic support team is comprised of 13 full-time staff members and a tutorial staff of approximately 75 tutors addressing all subject areas.

ACADEMIC COUNSELING

Eight academic counselors and three assistant academic counselors are in place to monitor daily academic progress, receive consistent course feedback, assist with the advising/registration process and monitor continuing eligibility and progress toward graduation. Essentially, academic counselors assist student-athletes in navigating the University of Nebraska system.

TUTORIAL SUPPORT

A tremendous resource for all academic abilities, unlimited tutorial support is available from day one up to college graduation. Subject and mentor tutors help provide academic support and study strategies to be successful. Supplemental Instruction, a sub-component of the tutorial program, provides targeted group review sessions to help ease the transition to college academics while improving study strategies and building academic self-esteem.

STUDY HALL

Nebraska's study hall program is housed in the D.J. Sokol Enrichment Center within the Dick and Peg Herman Family Student Life Complex. Student-athletes attend a supervised, flex-time study hall that features day, evening and weekend hours. Each student-athlete is required to complete a specific number of study hours each week as determined by their academic counselor and/or coach. In addition, weekly study hall reports are provided to the coaching staff. Additional performance-based or tutor-based study hall may also be determined by the academic counselor.

STUDY HALL

Many student-athletes meet with a mentor on a weekly basis to assist in making a smooth transition from high school to college. Mentors collect syllabi, gather and report academic progress information and teach academic success strategies.

EDUCATIONAL ASSESSMENTS

Assessments are administered upon the request of the student-athlete, academic counselor, or coach to determine student strengths and areas for improvement. Results allow academic counselors to develop a personalized academic support program and to determine if more in-depth testing is warranted. When additional assessments are necessary, referrals are made to a consulting psychologist who conducts the assessments. If it is determined that a student-athlete has a learning disability, appropriate accommodations are made through the Office of Services for Students with Disabilities.

STUDENT-ATHLETE ORIENTATION

The academic staff coordinates New Student-Athlete Orientation to help newcomers adjust to the multiple demands of being a college student-athlete. Presentations are made by academic counselors, compliance officials, NU faculty and administrators, business/community professionals and student-athletes.

PERSONAL COUNSELING

Student-athletes will find a supportive and caring environment at Nebraska. Transitional issues, stress management, time management, academic focus and problem resolution are all addressed in a proactive manner throughout the year. If necessary, counseling referrals are also made to designated practitioners.

COMPUTER RESOURCES

Student-athletes enjoy a new state-of-the-art computer lab and technology center with 58 computers and professional supervision. Laptops are also available during team travel. Student-athletes have the benefit of ongoing education and assistance from a full-time computer technician.

Nebraska's approach to academic success includes the Dick and Peg Herman Student Life, which is one of the nation's finest academic and life skills centers. Completed in the fall of 2010, the $8.7 million expansion nearly tripled the size of Nebraska's previous academic space in Memorial Stadium.

Top: The grand entry on the west side of Memorial Stadium features displays of some of the nation's top student-athlete award winners, including 17 NCAA Top Ten Award honorees and Nebraska's most recent CoSIDA Academic All-Americans. In 2012, Husker volleyball student-athlete Gina Mancuso (pictured top center) was a first-team academic All-American.

The columns in Nebraska's Hall of Distinction list the names of every student-athlete who has graduated and earned a letter in a varsity sport at the University of Nebraska.

NEBRASKA LIFE SKILLS - SERVING LEADERS

The Nebraska Life Skills program is committed to providing proactive education, resources and support throughout college and beyond, best preparing Husker student-athletes for life after sports. Services foster transition, retention, responsible decision-making, leadership, volunteerism and career development.

Nebraska has long been considered a pioneer in life skills support and programming. In 1998, Nebraska was one of five Division I schools nationally to win the prestigious Program of Excellence Award recognizing a strong commitment to total person development. In 2005, Keith Zimmer, Associate A.D. for Life Skills, was the recipient of the Dr. Gene Hooks Award recognizing him as the top life skills administrator in the country.

LIFE SKILLS COMPONENTS PROACTIVE EDUCATION

Husker Life Seminar – All incoming student-athletes complete a 13-week fall semester seminar addressing a variety of life skills topics ranging from leadership to money to relationships and study skills. Team Workshops – Campus and community experts facilitate team-specific life skills education workshops. Student-Athlete Assemblies – Meetings featuring remarks from nationally recognized life skills trainers.

PERSONALIZED SUPPORT/INDIVIDUAL SESSIONS

Resume Development – Each student-athlete is assigned a Life Skills counselor who assists in the creation of a personalized resume for the student-athlete. Periodic follow-up meetings will take place through graduation to ensure a well-rounded college experience and marketability to realize career goals.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

Nebraska student-athletes combine to impact over 100,000 people statewide on an annual basis. Team Service Requirement – Each team participates in a minimum of two service projects per year. School Outreach – Individuals participate in numerous school outreach campaigns in both classroom and assembly settings. Hospital Visits – Huskers are frequent hospital visitors providing cheer and encouragement to a variety of patients. Miscellaneous Outreach – Outreach requests are received daily from the entire state requesting involvement from Husker student-athletes. Mentoring Programs – Typically requires one hour of service per week serving as a youth mentor.

The 6-3 outside hitter from Papillion, Neb., also teamed with her sister on the inaugural Tom Osborne Citizenship Team and the academic All-Big Ten team as a sand volleyball player in 2014.

LEADERSHIP/CITIZENSHIP

Life Skills promotes leadership development and provides recognition opportunities for extraordinary citizenship. Student-Athlete Advisory Committee – Elected team representatives from each of the 23 sports serve as the “voice” of the entire student-athlete population discussing student-athlete welfare, legislation and service events. HERO Leadership Award – Individual recognition to Huskers who have consistently gone above and beyond serving as an exemplary role-model. Heart and Soul Award – Presented annually to the top senior student-athlete leaders for extraordinary service throughout their college careers. Tom Osborne Citizenship Team – Individual recognition to Huskers across all sports who have completed at least six service projects during the academic year. Nebraska Football Uplifting Athletes - A recognized student organization initiated in 2012, Nebraska football players and UNL student leaders collaborate to raise funds and awareness for those with rare diseases. Nebraska running back Rex Burkhead was named the 2012 recipient of the National Rare Disease Champion Award and C.J. Zimmerer won the award in 2014. Life Skills Award of Excellence – Recognizes team services and leadership with the top men’s and women’s programs being honored on an annual basis.

CAREER COMMITMENT

In addition to the creation of a personalized resume and game plan, the following career resources are available to every Husker. Student-Athlete Career Fair – Attended by approximately 25 companies. Networking Night – Former Husker student-athletes and other professionals thriving in their chosen career fields share valuable insights with sophomore student-athletes. Assessments – On-line assessments to help individuals discover talents and match with a major and career. Practical Experience – Programs in place to facilitate shadowing and internship placements. Job Preparation – Expert advice on cover letter writing, interviewing skills and evaluating the job offer.

POSTGRADUATE ASSISTANCE

Commitment to helping student-athletes pursue postgraduate plans and scholarships. Career Nights – Learn from the experts to gain valuable insight on timelines, application procedures, entrance requirements, personal essays and more. Scholarships – Seniors in their final season of athletic eligibility can apply for numerous postgraduate awards.

LEADING THE WAY

As one of the nation's premier public institutions, the University of Nebraska is committed to undergraduate learning and world-class research. Quality instruction is emphasized in Nebraska's 157 undergraduate majors, which are spread through nine undergraduate colleges.

Nebraska, which officially joined the Big Ten Conference on July 1, 2011, is a member of the Committee on Institutional Cooperation, a consortium of Big Ten universities and the University of Chicago, which has generated unique opportunities for students and faculty by sharing expertise, leveraging resources and collaborating on programs.

The University of Nebraska was chartered by the Nebraska Legislature in 1869 as the state's public university and land-grant institution. Founded in Lincoln, the University of Nebraska was expanded in 1968 into a state educational system now comprising four campuses under the guidance of a Board of Regents and a central administration.

WELCOME TO LINCOLN

The state capital of Nebraska, Lincoln is a growing city that features activities for citizens of all ages and interests. Lincoln is a scenic city that includes gardens, bike paths and entertainment. The Haymarket District is full of entertainment and dining options and is just blocks from the UNL Campus. The historic state capitol building provides the centerpiece of the downtown area, and famed "O" Street provides numerous options for nightlife and entertainment for UNL students.

Modeled after the Power and Light District in Kansas City, the Railyard sits right across from the front entrance of the new Pinnacle Bank Arena, allowing fans to go to an event and then go out to the outdoor plaza.

Some of the artists that have played or will play at Pinnacle Bank Arena since it opened in August of 2013 include: Jay-Z, Katy Perry, Michael Buble, Pink, Pearl Jam, Jason Aldean, Elton John, Miranda Lambert and Paul McCartney.

One of the nation's 75 largest cities, Lincoln features the advantages of an urban setting and is only minutes away from the scenic beauty and wide open spaces of America's Heartland. Home to more than one-quarter of a million people and the third-largest city in the Big Ten Conference, living in Lincoln enables Nebraska student-athletes to enjoy the benefits of city life, while residing in a community that is widely regarded as one of the top places to live in the United States.

BIG TEN EXPANDS NATIONAL REACH

On July 1, 2011, the University of Nebraska became an official member of the Big Ten Conference, increasing the Big Ten's membership to 12 institutions for the first time in conference history. The addition of Nebraska marked the Big Ten's first expansion since Penn State joined the conference in June of 1990. The nation's oldest conference continued to grow with the addition of Maryland and Rutgers in the summer of 2014. The Big Ten Conference is a union of 14 world-class academic institutions – who share a common mission of research, graduate, professional and undergraduate teaching and public service. The conference's 100-plus years of history, strong tradition of competitive intercollegiate athletic programs, vast and passionate alumni base, and consistent leadership in innovations position the Big Ten and its entire community firmly on the Big Stage.

The Big Ten has sustained a comprehensive set of shared practices and policies that enforce the priority of academics and emphasize the values of integrity, fairness and competitiveness in all aspects of its student-athletes' lives, with the ultimate goal of ensuring that each individual has the opportunity to live a Big Life.

BIG TEN CONFERENCE HIGHLIGHTS

- » Big Ten universities provide approximately $200 million in direct financial aid to nearly 9,500 student-athletes on 350 teams across 42 sports.
- » The Big Ten sponsors 28 official conference sports, 14 for men 14 for women, including the debut of lacrosse this academic year.
- » Over the past 10 years, current Big Ten institutions have won national championships in 18 sports.
- » The Big Ten leads the nation in total student-athletes and participation opportunities, while sponsoring more official sports than all conferences other than the Ivy League.
- » Nearly 1,400 Big Ten student-athletes and coaches have participated in the Olympics, winning at least 480 medals, including nearly 250 gold.

BIG

- » Big Ten fans are some of the nation's most supportive, with nearly 10 million patrons attending conference home contests for football, men's and women's basketball and volleyball during 2013-14. During 2013-14, the Big Ten led the nation in men's basketball, women's volleyball, hockey and wrestling attendance, while ranking second nationally in football and women's basketball attendance.
- » The Big Ten leads all conferences with more than 5.7 million living alumni and 520,000 students.

BIG TEN NETWORK

Headquartered in Chicago, the Big Ten Network is the first internationally distributed television network dedicated to covering one of America's premier collegiate conferences.

With more than 400 live sports events, and virtually all of them in high definition, the Big Ten Network is the ultimate destination for Big Ten fans and alumni across the country. The network is on the air 24 hours a day, 365 days a year.

The network is available to an estimated 60 million households. The network is carried by all major cable, satellite and telecommunications providers and BTN2Go is also available on smartphones, tablets and the internet.

BIG TEN NETWORK FACTS - MORE TELEVISION EXPOSURE

- » The Big Ten's media agreements with BTN, ABC/ESPN, CBS, FOX and NBC Sports Network provide the conference with more than 1,200 events that are produced and distributed nationally on an annual basis.
- » In 2006, the Big Ten created the first national conference-owned television network devoted to the athletic and academic programs of a single conference. The Big Ten Network launched on Aug. 30, 2007, and became the first new network in cable or satellite television history to reach 30 million homes in its first 30 days.
- » Since the current media agreements began in 2007-08, every home football and men's basketball game has been produced while women's basketball has received more coverage than any other conference.
- » The Big Ten's new media agreements have resulted in the broadcast of nearly 1,200 events nationally and regionally on an annual basis, compared to 300 events in the final year of the previous agreements.

Top: Coach John Cook is interviewed on the Big Ten Network following Nebraska's win over Iowa at the Devaney Center in 2013. The Huskers had 22 matches carried by BTN and BTN.com in 2013. The Big Ten Network is available in 60 million homes and carries more than 400 live events each year.

Middle: Nebraska played host to Penn State in the Huskers' first-ever Big Ten Conference match on Sept. 21, 2011. The match also was televised live nationally by the Big Ten Network.

Bottom: An NCAA-record crowd of 17,430 was on hand for the 2008 NCAA semifinal match between Nebraska and Penn State at the Qwest Center Omaha (now CenturyLink Center). The Huskers will again play host to the NCAA Semifinals and Final at the CenturyLink Center in Omaha, Dec. 17-19, 2015.

NEBRASKA'S NATIONAL POWER

Nebraska competed at the highest levels across the board in 2013-14, producing top-25 national finishes in 14 of its 24 varsity sports. Nebraska was one of only two NCAA Division I schools to advance to the NCAA Championships in the six major team sports of men's and women's basketball, baseball and softball, women's soccer and women's volleyball, while also playing in a football bowl game. The Huskers won NCAA Tournament games in five of those sports, while also winning their bowl game, a feat no other school in the country matched in 2013-14.

In addition to the success of Husker teams, Nebraska produced its most All-Americans in more than a decade with 42 student-athletes capturing national honors across all sports in 2013-14. Nebraska's 42 All-Americans included 29 first-team award winners in their respective sports, led by 2014 NCAA 400-meter hurdles champion Miles Ukaoma. The Big Red's All-Americans came from 17 U.S. states, including eight from the Cornhusker State, and three foreign countries to claim a total of 51 All-America awards.

Not only did the Huskers enjoy success across many fields of competition, Nebraska fans supported the Big Red in record numbers as the volleyball (1st), football (9th), women's basketball (11th), men's basketball (13th), baseball (15th) and softball programs all ranked among the nation's top 20 in attendance. The football (333) and volleyball (200) also carried NCAA sellout streaks into their 2014 seasons.

Coach Bo Pelini's Nebraska football program notched its sixth consecutive nine-win season by defeating Georgia in the Gator Bowl. The Big Red closed the season with a 9-4 record and finished at No. 25 in the USA Today Coaches Top 25. Coach Tim Miles claimed Big Ten Coach-of-the-Year honors in his second season at Nebraska by leading the Huskers to their first NCAA Tournament appearance since 1998. Coach Darin Erstad led the Nebraska baseball team to the NCAA Tournament in his third season at his alma mater. The former Major League All-Star and Gold Glove winner guided the Huskers to a 41-21 record and runner-up finishes in the Big Ten regular season and at the tournament held at TD Ameritrade Park.

Coach John Cook's traditionally powerful volleyball program marched to the NCAA Elite Eight and finished No. 7 nationally in the AVCA Top 25. The Huskers featured Big Ten Player of the Year and first-team AVCA All-America outside hitter Kelsey Robinson. Connie Yori claimed Big Ten Coach-of-the-Year honors for the second straight season while leading the women's basketball program to its first conference tournament title. The Huskers advanced to the NCAA Tournament second round and finished No. 13 in the final AP rankings behind Big Ten Player of the Year and first-team WBCA All-America forward Jordan Hooper.

John Walker added Big Ten Coach-of-the-Year honors of his own for leading the Nebraska soccer program back to prominence. The Huskers swept the Big Ten regular-season and tournament crowns before advancing to the second round of the 2013 NCAA Tournament while finishing 13th in the final NSCAA Top 25. Jordan Jackson was named the Big Ten Midfielder of the Year, while Ari Romero captured Big Ten Defender-of-the-Year honors. Big Ten Coach of the Year Rhonda Revelle led the Husker softball team to an NCAA Super Regional for the second straight year after sharing the Big Ten regular-season title and finishing 17th in the final national rankings. The Huskers featured first-team All-America catcher Taylor Edwards and her twin sister, third-team All-America pitcher Tatum Edwards.

The traditional national power Husker bowling team took second at the NCAA Championships with first-team All-American Lizabeth Kuhlkin leading the way for Coach Bill Straub's team. Great America Rifle Conference Coach of the Year Stacy Underwood led the Huskers to a fifth-place finish at the NCAA Championships with young All-Americans Lauren Phillips, Denise Martin and Rachel Martin leading the way.

One of the greatest women's gymnasts in Nebraska history, Emily Wong powered Coach Dan Kendig's squad to the NCAA Super Six. Wong finished her career as an 11-time All-American by capturing three All-America awards in 2014. The Big Ten Gymnast of the Year was also the AAI Award winner as the nation's top gymnast. The women's outdoor track and field team capped the season with a 19th-place finish at the NCAA Championships thanks to first-team All-America performances by Maggie Malone (Javelin), Jazmin McCoy (Long Jump) and Ellie Ewere (Triple Jump).

Coach Chuck Chmelka's men's gymnastics team took eighth at the NCAA Championships behind a first-team All-America performance in the all-around from Wyatt Aycock. Coach Mark Manning guided the wrestling team to an outstanding season. The Husker wrestlers finished 11th at the NCAA Championships with All-Americans James Green (3rd, 157) and Robert Kokesh (4th, 174) leading the way.

Nebraska capped its 2013-14 campaign by receiving the top individual performance of the year from senior hurdler Miles Ukaoma at the NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championships. Ukaoma raced to the 2014 NCAA title in the 400-meter hurdles to help the Husker men take 12th as a team at the outdoor championships. Coach Gary Pepin's squad also tied for 17th at the NCAA Indoor Championships. Overall, eight Husker men's track and field athletes captured first-team All-America honors.

A unanimous All-Big Ten pick in 2013-14, Terran Petteway led the conference in scoring at 18.1 points per game. Petteway and the revitalized Huskers made their first NCAA Tournament appearance since 1998, while ranking among the nation's best in attendance.

Jordan Hooper capped her illustrious career by becoming just the third Husker to earn first-team WBCA All-America honors. The Alliance, Neb., native set a school record with 295 three-pointers, while finishing second in points (2,357) and rebounds (1,110).

BEYOND NEBRASKA

Following their collegiate experiences, many former Huskers have the opportunity to play either professionally or with their respective national teams.

Last season, nine former Huskers were playing professionally overseas with teams in Azerbaijan, Brazil, Japan, Puerto Rico, Russia, Spain and Switzerland.

The Huskers are also well represented on the U.S. National Team, as Jordan Larson, Kayla Banwarth and Kelsey Robinson are currently on the U.S. National Team roster. Nebraska Head Coach John Cook was also on the U.S. National Team staff at the 2011 Women's Pan American Cup in Juarez, Mexico, where he served as the team manager.

A total of 13 current or former Huskers have been members of the U.S. National Team, while four former Huskers (Larson, Metcalf, Allison Weston and Lori Endicott) have represented the United States in the Olympic Games.
